Three Die in Freak Accident at Chester

Chester, May 26 (AP)—Three persons were reported today to have been killed in a freak automobile mishap near here on a highway under construction.

State police said the three apparently drowned when their car plunged from a paved section of the new, but still unopened, highway, into a low place filled with water.

The accident was thought to have occurred sometime during the night but the mishap was not discovered until this morning. There was no immediate identification of the victims, all described as adults.

The accident occurred on the new "quick way" linking Route 32 and Route 17 to Goshen, bypassing Monroe, Chester and other towns.

British Plan Is Beaten to Cease War in Indochina

Anti-Communists Voice Objection to 4-Point Proposal on Fear of Partition

Geneva, May 26 (AP)—A British plan to open immediate military discussions here between rival military commands on how to end the war in Indochina has failed to win approval from all the anti-Communist delegations.

This was disclosed today by a conference source, who said the delegations from Laos and Cambodia objected to a four-point proposal made yesterday by British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden. Delegates from those two Indochina states feared the plan might lead to partition of their countries.

New Approach Possible

The conference was temporarily adjourned until tomorrow to give the delegations time to work out a new approach, the source said.

The Battle for Asia

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
(AP Foreign News Analyst)

Geneva, May 26 (AP)—Wong Fui-Foo's schoolmaster was a persuasive fellow. So, almost before he knew it, Wong became a Communist Terrorist.

Wong's history is, in brief, the history of nine years of jungle warfare in Malaya, the story of Communist recruitment in southeast Asia by persuasion, blackmail and kidnaping.

Wong, a young Malayan Chinese, was a bright student, the kind the Communists like to take over.

He lived in the Layang Layang area of British-ruled Malaya. One day schoolmaster Ho Choong gave Wong a list of foodstuffs to buy at the village store. Wong carried out the errand. Five times more the same thing happened.

It became routine.

The sixth time, unsuspecting Wong was asked not to place the food under a palm tree near the village road. Wong did so. Then schoolmaster Ho had him.

Was Suspected by Police

The police, Wong was told, suspected him of supplying food to a civilian Chinese organization supplying Red Terrorist in the jungle. This was a serious offense. The British-Malayan "Operation Kitchener," cracking down on the Red supply line, had reduced the Terrorists in many areas to living on oil palm nuts.

The only thing Wong could do, Schoolmaster Ho told him, was hide out. Wong believed it. He joined the Communists afield. He remained with them until he was punished for shooting a wild boar while on sentry duty. Then he escaped and surrendered to the British-Malayan forces.

In Malaya the Red terrorist movement is in deep trouble in its jungle fastnesses. As matters stand now, the Reds are also faring badly in Burma, a Republic of 18 million freed by the British in 1947. In neighboring Thailand, the sturdily pro-western Siamese are cracking down on Chinese elements suspect of fostering underground Red activities. But revolution marks time across the borders.

Dairy Industry Is at Work On Big Ad Campaign

Albany, May 26 (AP)—New York's dairy industry, warned that this month's milk supply might be double the demand, worked today on a $600,000 advertising campaign to boost milk consumption at least 10 per cent.

A 13-member industry committee appointed by Gov. Dewey to push milk sales met yesterday and heard the State Agriculture Department's forecast that the May surplus would be more than 240 million quarts.

The department said its estimate, based upon present rates of output and consumption, indicated herds would produce twice as much milk this month as New Yorkers normally drink.

The surplus figure does not mean that milk-drinking would have to be doubled to relieve dairy farmers, caught between rising costs and falling prices, the department said.

The industry figures that a 10 per cent gain in consumption would solve the problem, since a 15 per cent surplus is needed anyway to meet day-to-day fluctuations in demand.

The probable June surplus was figured at approximately 225 million quarts. In March—the latest

Bridge Authority To Meet McGovern

Members to Discuss Span Contract With State Comptroller

The New York State Bridge Authority expects to meet with State Comptroller J. Raymond McGovern in Albany tomorrow presumably to discuss the contract for the sub-structure of the Kingston-Rhinebeck bridge, it was learned today.

On May 5 the bridge authority voted approval of a contract with Merritt-Chapman-Scott, of 260 Madison avenue, New York, the low bidder on the project, but this action is still subject to approval by the New York State Department of Public Works.

The low bid was $4,495,477, which was $1,071,523 under the $5,567,000 state estimate for the job which calls for the building of piers and abutments.

Were Asked to Meet

A spokesman for the bridge authority said that body had been asked to meet with the comptroller and it was hoped the meeting could be held tomorrow in Albany. The purpose of the Albany meeting was not disclosed.

Bids on the sub-structure of the bridge were opened last April 20. The second lowest bidder was Moore Lopier Corp., 75 West 90th street, New York, which bid $5,226,560, and the highest bidder was the Baltimore Construction Corp., Baltimore, Md., which bid $8,923,158.

Work on the western approach to the bridge is expected to be completed early this summer and work on the eastern approach is progressing toward completion probably by fall.

Both Sides Claim Victory in Fight For Rail Control

Young Optimistic, Says Procedure Is Routine as Stockholders Meet in Albany

Albany, May 26 (AP)—The titanic struggle for control of the 2½-billion-dollar New York Railroad System got under way in Albany today with both sides claiming victory.

Robert R. Young, leader of the forces seeking to oust the present management and board of directors of the second largest railroad in the world, arrived in Albany aboard the first section of a special train that brought approximately 1,000 stockholders from New York city.

He told reporters his group was certain of victory and added:

'It's just routine now. The fight was over a long time ago, but the other side kept spending the New York Central's money—about 2 million dollars of it—and we're going to try to collect it from them when we get in."

Young went to the 10th Regiment Armory, where the annual meeting of Central stockholders opens at 11 a. m., EST.

William White, president of the Central and the leader in the fight to keep the railroad under its present management, also was in the first section of the New York-Albany Special. But he got off at Poughkeepsie about half way up the Hudson river and boarded the second section.

Mingles With Others

A spokesman said that White wanted to mingle with stockholders in both sections.

Contract Awarded For Water Tank on Upper Pearl Street

Chicago Bridge & Iron Co. Bid Is $36,750 for 600,000-Gallon Standpipe

A contract for the erection of a 600,000-gallon tank in the area of Pearl street extension was awarded to the Chicago Bridge & Iron Co., of 165 Broadway, New York, by the water board last night on a bid of $36,750.

The contract calls for erection and painting of the steel tank as one phase of a $240,000 project aimed at improving water pressure in the uptown area.

Other phases of the standpipe project call for installation of 6,000 feet of pipeline and the building of a pumping station.

The Chicago Bridge & Iron Co., erected a standpipe in the Marius street area about 20 years ago and the city's 50,000-gallon tank at the filter house some time ago.

Part of Program

The standpipe project is part of a $540,000 water department program which includes improvements at the filter house, the building of a new pipeline system in the area of the Benedictine Hospital, and the replacement of a section of pipe between the filter house and the Jockey Hill road also with extending water service to the site of the IBM plant. Both of the latter are under way.

Edmund T. Cloonan, water department superintendent, said a pressure test is scheduled for tomorrow on the nearly 6,000 feet of line replaced between the filter house and Jockey Hill road, and the 4,400 feet of pipeline to the IBM site should be completed by the end of next week.

The contractor for the line extending from the filter plant is Beckerle-Brown, of Pearl River, and Joseph Gruner, of Highland is doing the work on the IBM line.

Superintendent Cloonan said other contracts for the $240,000 standpipe project are expected to be awarded early in July, and this is expected to include one for the foundation of the tank. It is possible, however, he indicated, that the foundation contract may be let earlier. The tank is due to be completed in 150 days after start of the work.

Two Persons Hurt

Two persons received minor injuries at 2 a. m. today when a 1947 sedan, traveling north on Route 32, near its juncture with Route 32-A, town of Saugerties, was allegedly cut off by a tractor-trailer, went off the road striking guard rails and a stop sign. Troopers Ripa and Reichman, who investigated, reported Harry M. Skow, Sr., 52, of 95-11 115th street, Richmond Hill, L. I., the driver of the car, received lacerations of the face and head. His son, Harry, Jr., 22, received lacerations of the leg and head. Both refused medical attention.

Miller Says He Was Away New Year's Time; Not on Record

Washington, May 26 (AP)—Pvt. G. David Schine's company commander testified today Schine took New Year's leave from Ft. Dix, N. J., in violation of instructions but was allowed to remain at home after Roy Cohn telephoned the fort.

Capt. Joseph J. Miller said he reported Schine as "absent without leave" but that no disciplinary action was taken against Schine, and Schine's service record does not show he was AWOL.

During his testimony Miller also said he never gave any "preferential treatment" to Schine, and that neither Sen. McCarthy nor any of McCarthy's aides ever asked him to do so.

Miller's story of the New Year's incident capped earlier testimony that Schine once apparently tried to offer him a trip to Florida, and also told him he was in the service "to remake the American military establishment along modern lines."

Had Specific Orders

Miller said he had scheduled Schine for guard duty Dec. 31 and had specifically instructed him he was not to leave the post without Miller's authority. Miller said he also had advised Schine that because Schine had a Christmas pass, he would not be entitled to a pass for New Year's Day.

Continuing, Miller said it developed that Schine could not be found in the company area where Schine "was supposed to be."

He said he considered that Schine was absent from the company area, without permission, and ordered a search for him which disclosed that Schine had signed out of the fort on a pass to New York as of 11:30 a. m., but that actually he had left prior to 10:45 a. m. when the search was begun.

Miller said Schine "left without authority from me" and this was a violation of Schine's orders. He said the arrangement was that all passes for Schine were to clear through Miller and Schine was not to leave on any other authority.

Cohn Placed Call

Miller said Roy Cohn, chief counsel to the McCarthy Sub-Committee, called at 3 o'clock that afternoon to say Schine would be working on subcommittee business "throughout the weekend."

Under questioning by Sen. Symington (D-Mo.), Miller said he considered Schine's absence was "absence without leave" and so reported to his regimental commander, who in turn reported to Maj. Gen. Cornelius Ryan, the fort commander.

Miller said Ryan advised that Schine was to be permitted to remain at his home, that there was "a possibility of a misunderstanding" which would be cleared up the following Monday.

Miller quoted Ryan as directing that if a member of the McCar-

6 Detainers Are Placed By Brownell

Seditious Conspiracy Is Charged to Nationalist Party; Result of Long FBI Check

Washington, May 26 (AP)—Atty. Gen. Brownell today announced the arrest of 11 leaders of the Nationalist party of Puerto Rico on charges of seditious conspiracy to overthrow the U. S. government.

Six of the arrests were made in Chicago, four in New York and one in San Juan, the capital of Puerto Rico.

Among those seized were Mrs. Oscar Collazo, whose husband took part in the attempted assassination of former President Truman on Nov. 1, 1950; and a brother of Dolores Lebron, one of the four Puerto Rican fanatics who shot five members of the House of Representatives March 1.

At the same time, Brownell placed detainers against six other members of the Nationalist party, including the four held in jail here on charges of wounding the five congressmen.

The other two detainers were placed against two Puerto Ricans now imprisoned in the Federal Correction Institution at Danbury, Conn.

The roundup resulted from a lengthy FBI investigation into Nationalist party activity extending back to 1936.

Members Are Responsible

FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover noted in connection with today's roundup that members of the party were responsible for a bloody revolutionary attempt in Puerto Rico in October and November, 1950, for the attempted assassination of former President Harry S. Truman at Blair House in November of that year, and for the recent shooting affray in the House here.

The National party of Puerto Rico has long been on the attorney general's subversive list, described as an organization seeking "to alter the form of government of the United States by unconstitutional means."

Hoover said the party, founded in 1922, has a history "filled with violence."

Leader Is Arrested

Its long-term leader, Pedro Albizu Campos, was arrested again by territorial authorities in Puerto Rico after the shooting of the five congressmen on March 1. He previously had been in prison.

The leaders rounded up today were:

Carlos Aulet, 28, Chicago, a body guard for Nationalist party officials, picked up in a parking lot at the rear of his residence.

Jorge Luis Jimenez, 34, Chicago, former president of the executive board of the party in Chicago, arrested at his home.

Armando Diaz Matos, 39, vice-president of the party's Chicago board. The FBI gave his address as Chicago.

Angel Luis Medina, 26, Chicago, former secretary-general of the Chicago branch.

Bonzalo Lebron Sotomayor, Chicago, the brother of Dolores Lebron, who led the party members in the assault on the House of Representatives.

Manuel Rabago Torres, 32, Chicago, former vice president of the Chicago branch.

Mrs. Collazo Held

Rosa Collazo, 43, 173 Brook avenue, the Bronx, New York, wife of Oscar Collazo, who is serving a life sentence for the attempted assassination of former President Truman. She was arrested at her home.

In accepting the check, Mrs. Dunbar invited Lions Club members to visit the Ulster County Cerebral Palsy Clinic in the tumor clinic building next to the city hall.

In another phase of the Cerebral Palsy drive, Alderman-at-Large Joseph Kelly, Kingston city chairman, announced today that letters will be mailed to every family in the city, giving each family an opportunity to contribute to the cause. Kelly pointed out that 75 per cent of the funds raised are used locally for treatment of handicapped children. At present, 97 children are receiving treatment at the clinic, he said, the total including not only cerebral palsy victims but also polio victims and others in need of therapy.

Both Sides Claim Victory in Fight For Rail Control

Young Optimistic, Says Procedure Is Routine as Stockholders Meet in Albany

Albany, May 26 (AP)—The titanic struggle for control of the 2½-billion-dollar New York Railroad System got under way in Albany today with both sides claiming victory.

Robert R. Young, leader of the forces seeking to oust the present management and board of directors of the second largest railroad in the world, arrived in Albany aboard the first section of a special train that brought approximately 1,000 stockholders from New York city.

He told reporters his group was certain of victory and added:

'It's just routine now. The fight was over a long time ago, but the other side kept spending the New York Central's money—about 2 million dollars of it—and we're going to try to collect it from them when we get in."

Young went to the 10th Regiment Armory, where the annual meeting of Central stockholders opens at 11 a. m., EST.

William White, president of the Central and the leader in the fight to keep the railroad under its present management, also was in the first section of the New York-Albany Special. But he got off at Poughkeepsie about half way up the Hudson river and boarded the second section.

Mingles With Others

A spokesman said that White wanted to mingle with stockholders in both sections.

White and Young did not meet

Contract Awarded For Water Tank on Upper Pearl Street

Chicago Bridge & Iron Co. Bid Is $36,750 for 600,000-Gallon Standpipe

A contract for the erection of a 600,000-gallon tank in the area of Pearl street extension was awarded to the Chicago Bridge & Iron Co., of 165 Broadway, New York, by the water board last night on a bid of $36,750.

The contract calls for erection and painting of the steel tank as one phase of a $240,000 project aimed at improving water pressure in the uptown area.

Other phases of the standpipe project call for installation of 6,000 feet of pipeline and the building of a pumping station.

The Chicago Bridge & Iron Co., erected a standpipe in the Marius street area about 20 years ago and the city's 50,000-gallon tank at the filter house some time ago.

Part of Program

The standpipe project is part of a $540,000 water department program which includes improvements at the filter house, the building of a new pipeline system in the area of the Benedictine Hospital, and the replacement of a section of pipe between the filter house and the Jockey Hill road also with extending water service to the site of the IBM plant. Both of the latter are under way.

Edmund T. Cloonan, water department superintendent, said a pressure test is scheduled for tomorrow on the nearly 6,000 feet of line replaced between the filter house and Jockey Hill road, and the 4,400 feet of pipeline to the IBM site should be completed by the end of next week.

The contractor for the line extending from the filter plant is Beckerle-Brown, of Pearl River, and Joseph Gruner, of Highland is doing the work on the IBM line.

Superintendent Cloonan said other contracts for the $240,000 standpipe project are expected to be awarded early in July, and this is expected to include one for the foundation of the tank. It is possible, however, he indicated, that the foundation contract may be let earlier. The tank is due to be completed in 150 days after start of the work.

Two Persons Hurt

Two persons received minor injuries at 2 a. m. today when a 1947 sedan, traveling north on Route 32, near its juncture with Route 32-A, town of Saugerties, was allegedly cut off by a tractor-trailer, went off the road striking guard rails and a stop sign. Troopers Ripa and Reichman, who investigated, reported Harry M. Skow, Sr., 52, of 95-11 115th street, Richmond Hill, L. I., the driver of the car, received lacerations of the face and head. His son, Harry, Jr., 22, received lacerations of the leg and head. Both refused medical attention.

Miller Says He Was Away New Year's Time; Not on Record

Washington, May 26 (AP)—Pvt. G. David Schine's company commander testified today Schine took New Year's leave from Ft. Dix, N. J., in violation of instructions but was allowed to remain at home after Roy Cohn telephoned the fort.

Capt. Joseph J. Miller said he reported Schine as "absent without leave" but that no disciplinary action was taken against Schine, and Schine's service record does not show he was AWOL.

During his testimony Miller also said he never gave any "preferential treatment" to Schine, and that neither Sen. McCarthy nor any of McCarthy's aides ever asked him to do so.

Miller's story of the New Year's incident capped earlier testimony that Schine once apparently tried to offer him a trip to Florida, and also told him he was in the service "to remake the American military establishment along modern lines."

Had Specific Orders

Miller said he had scheduled Schine for guard duty Dec. 31 and had specifically instructed him he was not to leave the post without Miller's authority. Miller said he also had advised Schine that because Schine had a Christmas pass, he would not be entitled to a pass for New Year's Day.

Continuing, Miller said it developed that Schine could not be found in the company area where Schine "was supposed to be."

He said he considered that Schine was absent from the company area, without permission, and ordered a search for him which disclosed that Schine had signed out of the fort on a pass to New York as of 11:30 a. m., but that actually he had left prior to 10:45 a. m. when the search was begun.

Miller said Schine "left without authority from me" and this was a violation of Schine's orders. He said the arrangement was that all passes for Schine were to clear through Miller and Schine was not to leave on any other authority.

Cohn Placed Call

Miller said Roy Cohn, chief counsel to the McCarthy Sub-Committee, called at 3 o'clock that afternoon to say Schine would be working on subcommittee business "throughout the weekend."

Under questioning by Sen. Symington (D-Mo.), Miller said he considered Schine's absence was "absence without leave" and so reported to his regimental commander, who in turn reported to Maj. Gen. Cornelius Ryan, the fort commander.

Miller said Ryan advised that Schine was to be permitted to remain at his home, that there was "a possibility of a misunderstanding" which would be cleared up the following Monday.

Miller quoted Ryan as directing that if a member of the McCar-

6 Detainers Are Placed By Brownell

Seditious Conspiracy Is Charged to Nationalist Party; Result of Long FBI Check

Washington, May 26 (AP)—Atty. Gen. Brownell today announced the arrest of 11 leaders of the Nationalist party of Puerto Rico on charges of seditious conspiracy to overthrow the U. S. government.

Six of the arrests were made in Chicago, four in New York and one in San Juan, the capital of Puerto Rico.

Among those seized were Mrs. Oscar Collazo, whose husband took part in the attempted assasination of former President Truman on Nov. 1, 1950; and a brother of Dolores Lebron, one of the four Puerto Rican fanatics who shot five members of the House of Representatives March 1.

At the same time, Brownell placed detainers against six other members of the Nationalist party, including the four held in jail here on charges of wounding the five congressmen.

The other two detainers were placed against two Puerto Ricans now imprisoned in the Federal Correction Institution at Danbury, Conn.

The roundup resulted from a lengthy FBI investigation into Nationalist party activity extending back to 1936.

Members Are Responsible

FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover noted in connection with today's roundup that members of the party were responsible for a bloody revolutionary attempt in Puerto Rico in October and November, 1950, for the attempted assassination of former President Harry S. Truman at Blair House in November of that year, and for the recent shooting affray in the House here.

The National party of Puerto Rico has long been on the attorney general's subversive list, described as an organization seeking "to alter the form of government of the United States by unconstitutional means."

Hoover said the party, founded in 1922, has a history "filled with violence."

Leader Is Arrested

Its long-term leader, Pedro Albizu Campos, was arrested again by territorial authorities in Puerto Rico after the shooting of the five congressmen on March 1. He previously had been in prison.

The leaders rounded up today were:

Carlos Aulet, 28, Chicago, a body guard for Nationalist party officials, picked up in a parking lot at the rear of his residence.

Jorge Luis Jimenez, 34, Chicago, former president of the executive board of the party in Chicago, arrested at his home.

Armando Diaz Matos, 39, vice-president of the party's Chicago board. The FBI gave his address as Chicago.

Angel Luis Medina, 26, Chicago, former secretary-general of the Chicago branch.

Bonzalo Lebron Sotomayor, Chicago, the brother of Dolores Lebron, who led the party members in the assault on the House of Representatives.

Manuel Rabago Torres, 32, Chicago, former vice president of the Chicago branch.

Mrs. Collazo Held

Rosa Collazo, 43, 173 Brook avenue, the Bronx, New York, wife of Oscar Collazo, who is serving a life sentence for the attempted assassination of former President Truman. She was arrested at her home.

Lions Club Gives $1,000 To Cerebral Palsy Drive

The Kingston Lions Club donated $1,000 to United Cerebral Palsy of Ulster county at the Lions meeting Tuesday noon at the Governor Clinton Hotel.

Joseph Fassbender, club treasurer, made the presentation, which was accepted by Mrs. De-Vall H. Dunbar, county chairman of the CP drive.

In accepting the check, Mrs. Dunbar invited Lions Club members to visit the Ulster County Cerebral Palsy Clinic in the tumor clinic building next to the city hall.

In another phase of the Cerebral Palsy drive, Alderman-at-Large Joseph Kelly, Kingston city chairman, announced today that letters will be mailed to every family in the city, giving each family an opportunity to contribute to the cause. Kelly pointed out that 75 per cent of the funds raised are used locally for treatment of handicapped children. At present, 97 children are receiving treatment at the clinic, he said, the total including not only cerebral palsy victims but also polio victims and others in need of therapy.

Woodstock, May 26—Saturday, May 29, will be Poppy Day in this village. Mrs. Wayne Underhill, president of the Woodstock unit of the American Legion Auxiliary 1026, which will sponsor observance of the day here, has announced that on Poppy Day everyone will be asked to wear a memorial poppy in tribute to America's war dead, and to contribute to the welfare of disabled war veterans and needy children of veterans. Poppies will be distributed on the streets throughout the day by volunteer workers from the American Legion Auxiliary.

Contributions made by those who wear the poppies form a principal source of support for the vast rehabilitation and child welfare work carried out by the Legion Auxiliary.

Memorial Planting Finished on Green

Woodstock, May 26 — Planting of the Woodstock War Memorial on the village green has been completed by the Woodstock Garden Club. In colors of red, white and blue, the planting is composed of one dozen red geraniums donated by the Rosendale Nursery, one dozen white petunias and two dozen ageratum interspersed with ivy and varigated colored vinca, donated by the Garden Club. The planting was done by Mrs. Edward Marquardt, Mrs. Roland d'Albis and Mrs. Gilbert Schneider.

The flag which now flies on the memorial was previously presented by the Garden Club.

The opening meeting of the club will be held June 2, at 3 p. m., at the home of Mrs. Roland d'Albis.

Motel to Open

Woodstock, May 26—Holdridge's Motel and Restaurant, on Tinker street, will open Friday, May 28, for the Memorial Day weekend. In addition to the eight units of the motel to the rear, there will be a restaurant in the main house with a capacity of 32 and equipped with indirect lighting and television.

The kitchen of Holdridge House has been modernized with new ice box, broiler and oven. Both the units of the motel and the dining room have been equipped with sound-proof ceilings.

In the motel units, each unit has individual heat attached to a central system, double walls for sound proofing and Anderson windows to insure complete ventilation. Special ventilation has also been installed in the rafters of the units. They all have large spacious rooms, excellent closet space and showers.

In the parking area there is room for 25 cars.

The project is under the direction of Joseph and Nora Holdridge.

Service Scheduled

Woodstock, May 26—There will be a union service of the Lutheran, Methodist and Dutch Reformed Churches at the Lutheran Church in this village, Sunday, May 30, at 11 a. m. The union service is usually held on the Sunday previous to Memorial Day, but this year it will be on the day itself. The speaker will be Mr. Frederic Snyder, world traveler and author of Kingston. His subject will be A Churchman Looks At The News. The service will be in charge of the Rev. Olney E. Cook, assisted by the Rev. Harvey I. Todd and the Rev. Kenneth Dearstyne. There will be special music by the choirs.

Village Notes

Woodstock, May 26—Mrs. William Hitzig and children were at their Bearsville home for the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Collings Henderson and family spent the weekend at their Bearsville home.

Allen Delano was in this village for a visit.

The Misses Marie and Bertha Frey were at their Bearsville home for the weekend.

Helen Cocuzza has arrived at her Bearsville home for the summer.

There will be an exhibition of paintings by Carolyn Dasson Plochmann at the Art Mart, Clayton, Mo., from June 4, through July 8. A reception for Mrs. Plochmann will be given on Friday, June 4. A group of 16 paintings will be included in the show.

The ladies of the Lutheran Church will hold a food sale, Saturday, June 5, beginning at 10 a. m. on the church lawn. The annual fair and cafeteria of the Lutheran Church will be held this year on Thursday, August 5, on the church grounds.

It has been announced that Mrs. Gilbert Schneider will serve as hostess this coming season at the Woodstock Country Club.

William Hand, chairman of the March of Dimes drive for funds in this village, has received a letter from Basil O'Connor, president of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis stating that "it now appears that our 1954 campaign surpassed any previous March of Dimes effort," and because of "the capable direction of inspired community leaders like you, the solution of polio is nearer at hand."

Services at the Town Hall will conclude with the benediction offered by the Rev. Kenneth Dearstyne.

In the parade from the Town Hall to the cemetery, the formation will be: state police, Red Cross and veteran's and Gold Star Mothers cars; Officer of the Day; aides, post chaplain, post adjutant; Woodstock School No. 2 Band; Colors, firing squad, Paul Joyce; American Legion Post 1026; American Legion Auxiliary, Post 1026; Woodstock Unit American Red Cross; Odd Fellows, Woodstock Fire Company No. 1; Boy Scout Troop 34, Boy Scout Cub Pack 34; Girl Scout Troops 12, 74 and 27, Brownie Troops 29 and 46; state police car, Rear Guard.

Flanders Fields will be recited by Mrs. William Klippel of the Legion Auxiliary. Lincoln's Gettysburg Address will be given by Houston Richards, after which the Boy Scouts will place a wreath at the cemetery. The salute to the dead will be given by the firing squad and taps will be played by post buglers and the procession will re-assemble for the march to the village green. ## SLOW DOWN AND LIVE

The experiences of law enforcement authorities show that nine out of ten accidents result from the action of drivers afflicted with the "in a hurry" complex. On the highways this viewpoint is expressed in the traffic violations involving speed, including speed too fast for conditions, following too closely, failing to yield right of way, improper passing and plain, excessive speed.

In an endeavor to reduce the terrible traffic toll on the highways, the authorities are going to deal severely with careless and reckless drivers. The peak period of travel on the highways in this and other areas will commence over the Memorial Day weekend. The campaign against the menace of the driver whose desire to be "first" imperils the thousands of cautious, courteous drivers will start at the same time.

The Greater New York Safety Council warns that automobile accidents will kill or injure several, vacation-bound college students during the next few weeks. The Council offers the following safety pointers for the collegiate motorists:

Stay a safe distance behind the car ahead. Highway pile-ups continue to be a serious problem.

Keep well within speed limits. Tests have shown that fast drivers don't reach their destinations much quicker than slow ones—who get there all in one piece.

If the trip is a long one don't do all the driving yourself. Take turns at the wheel with another passenger. If you have to make the trip alone stop often to rest.

Never keep driving when you feel tired. A government analysis of some 350 accidents revealed that fatigue was a factor in 37 per cent of them.

Always keep fresh air circulating.

MACHINES AND SMALL FARMS

Among the many changes that have taken place in the world of farming in the last generation or so, there has been a substantial increase in the size of the average farm.

One of the most important reasons for this is the great progress made in the use of farm equipment. Machinery, which gets more efficient and more durable all the time, has made it possible for each farmer to develop and till far more acreage than used to be the case, with much less physical effort.

But that doesn't mean that the age of the small, family farm is coming to an end—or that this kind of farm is unable to qualify for the benefits of mechanization. While the small farmer can't buy all the mechanized equipment that we see on the large farms, by cooperating with his neighbors, he can achieve a high degree of mechanization. One farmer buys one kind of machine, another buys another, and so on. Then they pool these invaluable and indefatigable mechanical laborers and get the work done—swiftly, and at minimum cost in money and human energy.

This is the age of the machine in farming just as it is in industry. And that is true of all modern farms, not just the larger ones.

CLEARER REPORTS

The Federal Trade Commission has ordered its employes who take part in hearings conducted by that body to write reports that anyone can understand. Anyone who has ever had to deal with a government agency will wish the FTC well in making the new policy work.

It is too much to expect that all reports on government affairs will be simple and easy to understand. Government is a complicated business and those who make out such reports are not always trained in the writing of lucid prose, however great their ability may be in other specialized fields.

Too often, however, reports which are essentially simple are made complicated and bewildering by a mass of technical and legal-sounding language. It often seems to be the policy among those who write the reports to use as many words as possible.

Ordering employes to write simplified reports and getting them to do so are two different matters. In can be hoped, however, that the FTC will have enough success with the idea to inspire other government agencies to try the same thing.

'These Days'

By GEORGE SOKOLSKY

GUATEMALA

It is not casual that the Soviet Universal State selected Guatemala as a base for operations against the United States in the Americas. It is a populous country and the second largest in area in Central America. It lies on Mexico and the Hondurases. Its coastline touches both the Caribbean and the Pacific. Its influence can extend throughout Central America and into Mexico. It can be an excellent base to endanger the Panama Canal.

The country is rich in raw materials, bananas, hardwods, chicle, sugar cane, cochineal, and coffee. Bananas became the principal item for export and most definitely affected the standard of living of the people, which was dreadfully low. The population consists of Negroes, Caribs and Indians and the various combinations of these races.

The principal commercial enterprise in Guatemala was the United Fruit Company, which, under the Agrarian Reform Law, June 17, 1952, was divested of about 246,000 acres by expropriation. The assets of the International Railway of Central America were seized as the result of a tax dispute in April, 1953. Other companies have been confiscated.

Guatemala is now in that state of the Communist development known as a People's Republic. This means a coalition of Left Wing political parties, in which the Communists are numerically not prevailing, but which they control anyhow by techniques developed in other countries. The leading party is called the Revolutionary Action Party (PAR), which has 25 out of 56 members in the Congreso Nacional. This used to be a cover for Communists like the American Labor Party in New York State. Most of the leading Communists are now in their own party, but this was done only to make it possible for the dominant party to be able to deny that Guatemala is a Communist country.

It is interesting to note that all political parties in Guatemala are either wholly Communist or have a Communist group within them. The most moderate of these is the Partido de la Revolucion Guatemalteca. The President of the country is Colonel Jacobo Arbenez, who was elected for a six-year term in 1950. Almost immediately after his inauguration in March, 1951, the Communists came out into the open, leaving the cover party, the PAR, and by December, 1952, established their own party, the Guatemalan Workers' Party, which was legally registered and is now a member of the government coalition. Not a single fact justifies the claim that this is not a Communist country except that in the Aesopian language of the Marxists it would be called a People's Republic.

Soviet Russia has since 1934 sought to establish a base of operations either in Cuba or in Mexico. In Cuba, the Communists encountered the opposition of General Batista, who suspended the functions of Congress and abolished political parties temporarily. Batista seized power on March 10, 1952, and will hold it until the next general election, which has twice been postponed. The Communists have not been able to work under Batista. In Mexico, the Communist parties are legal but not included in the government. The labor leader, Vicente Lombardo Toledano, is generally regarded as the Communist leader not only of Mexico but of Latin America.

The failure to establish a Communist base in Mexico, after the Soviet diplomat, Constantine Oumansky, was killed in an airplane accident in 1945, forced the Russians to develop another base. Other Central American countries were tried, but Marxism took hold best in Guatemala, which is now the first country affiliated with the Soviet Universal State in the Americas.

It represents a distinct threat to the peace of these continents because, pursuing a Marxist course, it must encourage revolutionary action among all its neighbors. Immediate trouble is to be expected in the Hondurases, Costa Rica, Nicaragua and Venezuela. The most important next objective will be Colombia because of its proximity to the Panama Canal.

In the development of a revolution leading to the establishment of a People's Republic, arms are as essential as propagandists and penetrators into government. It must always be remembered that a confirmed Marxist, in whatever country, regards himself as belonging to the Soviet Universal State and not to his own country. Some may even be Russian citizens as are the Communist leaders in Korea. If Guatemala is to be the center of this operation, its operations in other countries will be supported by Marxists in those countries.

REASSURANCE FOR HEART PATIENTS

A great number of patients attribute conditions in which pain or distress is present to heart disease when, as a matter of fact, the heart is in no way involved in causing the pain. I wrote on the subject some years ago.

From the Medical Clinics of North America I quoted Drs. John Oille and William A. Oille, University of Toronto, in which they stated that careful inquiry and reproducing procedures (procedures in which symptoms similar to those described by the patient) greatly aid in the correct diagnosis wrongly blamed on the heart.

"Most patients consulting a physician for evaluation of discomfort which they impute to heart disease are suffering only from fear of heart disease, a fear often inadvertently instilled by a physician's ill-considered remark."

What these patients need is "positive" assurance that their hearts are sound and in order for the physician to make this statement with conviction it will generally be necessary to explain the underlying cause of all the patient's ills to him as simply and accurately as possible.

Patients with pains beneath the breast or pains extending from breast bone to armpits are frequently considerd as being caused by heart disease. Spondylitis—inflammation of one or more bones or joints of the spine—usually causes pain on one side (often the left), variable in location, intensity and the length of time it lasts. Pain from spondylitis and other pains in the bones and joints are often worse on particular movements and postures and these pains can be reproduced by some particular movement. Sometimes what is known as an intervertebral disc (cushion between bones of the spine) causes a nerve root pain called shooting or stabbing pains. Although the cause of the pain may be difficult to locate, it is usually related to movement or body position and can occur with almost any patient in whom no other disorder is found. Dr. Oille states that this type of pain is never caused by heart disease. Also that heartburn is not a symptom of heart disease.

"In differentiation from heartburn and other stomach and intestinal conditions there is often a relation to meals, certain foods, alcohol and excessive tobacco, or a state of tension." Pain from food and eating usually remains in the one spot. What is called "soldier's heart" (neurocirculatory asthenia) is said to be the hallmark of neurosis. "These patients need strong reassurance."

I believe reassurance is the greatest need of any heart patient.

Washington, (NEA) — Supreme Court Chief Justice Earl Warren was just about the only high-ranking Republican in Washington who gave ex-President Harry Truman even a nod on his recent visit to Washington.

Accompanied by a couple of his knockout daughters, the Chief Justice showed up at a reception in honor of Truman's 70th birthday. They got a warm welcome from the Truman family.

There was a story and a reason behind this act of courtesy. When President Truman went to San Francisco for the signing of the Japanese peace treaty in 1951, Governor Warren, as executive head of the host state, made the customary call to pay his respects to the President of the United States. The visit came just as President Truman, his personal staff and California Democratic political leaders were sitting down to lunch.

That didn't faze Harry Truman in the least. He invited Governor Warren in, introduced him all around, made a place for him at the table and insisted that he sit down and eat with them.

"He didn't have to do that," the governor said in telling about it later. "He's a nice guy." This act of warm friendliness made an impression on Warren.

His birthday call an the ex-President in Washington was simply his own gracious way of returning the courtesy.

It just shows that politicians can be gentlemen at times—if they're gentlemen to begin with.

Gal reporters in the Washington press corps got no answer when they asked, the other day, what the First Lady was wearing to the White House reception that evening.

Social Secretary Mary Jane McCaffree allowed that Mrs. Eisenhower hadn't made up her mind. The reporters understood perfectly how that was and didn't press the point.

For an 8 p. m. state dinner or a 9 p. m. reception. Secretary McCaffree explained later to one fashion reporter, Mrs. Eisenhower might choose her dress in the morning, or maybe not till afternoon. In fact, like any woman in this country, she has been known to make up her mind in the morning — and change it in the afternoon.

Washington Fairy Story—Once upon a time there were two people who had lunch together and during the whole meal they never mentioned the Army-McCarthy hearings.

Henry Wallace will love this. Remember how they beat the former secretary of agriculture and vice president over the head when he dared to suggest that the world would be a lot better place if every family could be sure of one quart of milk a day?

This was labeled as Henry's crazy idea for giving away milk to the Hottentots. It became a symbol of the New Deal give-away and a political campaign issue.

Well, Republican Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson has now announced that studies are being made on the feasibility of establishing milk reconstitution plants in Asia. The idea is to build up a market for surplus U. S. nonfat milk solids and other dairy products.

Each of the plants would cost from $200,000 to $500,000 and would provide a market for up to a million pounds of dry milk solids a year. Mixed with water, they would make 40,000 to 80,000 quarts of milk a day. The milk could even be made into ice cream.

So Wallace's proposal has now been topped. The GOP version is not milk for the Hottentots but "Ice Cream for the Asiatics."

Helping to dedicate a new portion of the frieze of historical scenes in the rotunda of the capitol, Vice President Richard M. Nixon said he felt that "Most of the members of the House and Senate are so busy with their official duties that we do not know as much about the capitol building as we should."

The vice president then confessed that, "Some day I should like to take time to join a guided tour of visitors and really find out something about this capitol."

Speaker of the House Joe Martin topped this one with a story about a senator whom he did not name but whose wealth, he said, "could be counted in millions.

"He acted as a guide one day for a wandering lady tourist," Speaker Martin related, "and he explained the capitol so well that the lady visitor rewarded him with a 25-cent tip."

He thanked her profusely, according to the speaker, then pocketed the quarter to save the lady embarrassment. He never told her that her guide was either a senator or a millionaire.

Armistice in Indochina Can Be Arranged, if Communists Will Agree

By DAVID LAWRENCE

Geneva, May 26 — They are heading now toward an armistice in Indochina—provided the Communists will agree. The technical work and the planning necessary to work out a military line in Vietnam which can be militarily safeguarded have begun. But the Communists give no sign of concurrence because the latest developments in the French Parliament open the door to a further exploitation of the French situation by Communist stalling.

Just as Allied unity began to make its appearance, with the splendid statements by Prime Minister Churchill in the British Parliament about American-British cooperation, the French Chamber of Deputies started to expose once more the weakness of the present French cabinet. The steady pressure of the opposition parties and elements in the government coalition to force a debate on Indochina is continuing. Once the debate occurs, the present government in Paris may fall and then negotiations here would be delayed.

This correspondent talked today with one of the leaders of the opposition group of the French Parliament, who insisted that the next government would be "more united" than the present regime. What he meant, of course, is "united" behind the ratification of the European defense community agreement, postponed until July, which is a long way off. Asked what a change in government would mean with respect to Indochina, he said it would be the forerunner of a policy of "saving the boys," and he referred to America's armistice in Korea as a significant precedent.

A canvass of the French situation reveals, on the other hand, that the sentiment for a strong policy of reorganization of the whole French command is growing and that, if the Geneva conference fails to produce an armistice, a comprehensive program of military action can be expected. This calls for an acceptance of the American offer to help train the native troops in Indochina and also for a command setup which is completely devoid of political interference from Paris. At any time now an announcement of the withdrawal of General Navarre from Indochina and the naming of a new commander-in-chief may be expected.

The countermoves planned—assuming an unwillingness on the part of the Communists to agree to an armistice—involve not only American cooperation in military training missions but the stepping up of supplies of a military character. Also there is in the works the plan referred to by Secretary of State Dulles at his press conference in Washington to bring the United Nations into the picture as an instrument for the protection of the integrity and independence of Laos and Cambodia, both of which countries have been invaded by Communist troops from across the border in Vietnam. Thailand, which has been threatened, will take the lead on the idea in the UN.

So the pressure on the Communists is threefold:

First, the American-French talks on a military plan to aid the defenders of Indo-China against aggression, which will be supplemented by staff talks in Washington starting on June 1 between the military chiefs of Britain, France, Australia, New Zealand and the United States. This planning will continue whether or not there is an armistice in Indo-China because it will be necessary to assure the inviolability of the truce line.

Second, the sending of a commission of the United Nations to observe and report to the UN general assembly as to aggression against Laos and Cambodia. This could mean United Nations action analogous to that which was taken in June 1950 in Korea.

Third, the formation of a permanent southeast Asia alliance, which now embraces a few states but which will include Great Britain as well as certain other Asian countries when the Geneva conference is concluded.

All these moves are being worked out now by the most intimate cooperation between Washington, Paris and London as well as Geneva. General Walter Bedell Smith, former American ambassador to Moscow and head of the American delegation here, is maintaining a close contact with Mr. Molotov as well as with Foreign Minister Eden and Foreign Minister Bidault. His skill as a diplomat as well as his background as a soldier—he was General Eisenhower's chief of staff during the Normandy invasion — have been commented upon by other allied delegates as particularly useful here.

The objective in Geneva still is peace. There is no desire to expand the war in Indo-China or to bring about American military intervention if it can possibly be avoided. None of the allies wants it, but the Communists are being left with no doubt that military action is a realistic alternative if they do not soon show a conciliatory attitude.

AS PEGLER SEES IT

By WESTBROOK PEGLER

New York, May 25 — I have searched without success for any expression of horror at the un-American smear of Frank Costello by Lloyd F. MacMahon, chief assistant U. S. attorney, in Judge McGohey's court the other day. The judge then gave Costello the outrageous sentence of 5 years in prison for evasion of $51,095 in income taxes.

MacMahon said: "To the man in the street, Costello is the symbol of the successful racketeer who, year after year, has flouted the law and gotten away with it. The sentence he receives will stand as an example for the easy-money boys who are Costello's friends, associates and admirers and also to everyone who is tempted to deal in cash and cheat the government.

"Even after years of the most painstaking investigation, government agents were not able to identify the specific source of the unreported income Costello received. His business associates have been open and notorious underworld characters, men like Frank Erickson, Joe Adonis, Meyer Lansky, Longie Zwillman and the late Willie Moretti. The list is a who's who of crime in the United States."

There is no such person as "the man in the street" and MacMahon and Judge McGohey know it. If there were such a person it wouldn't make a particle of difference what he thought of Costello. MacMahon and McGohey know that, too. And furthermore, MacMahon holds no credentials from this mythical "man in the street" to speak for him. If there were such a person, he might be a crook or a fool. Or a very decent fellow who would resent this inflammatory stump-speech by a man who is supposed to speak for the Department of Justice to which we look for the protection of our rights.

If Costello has flouted the law and "gotten away with it" that is a reproach to the men who are paid well to enforce laws, including MacMahon. It is not up to a criminal to accuse and convict himself. And the fact that he did get away with it should be regarded as proof that he didn't commit any crimes at all. Got away with what? If MacMahon knows of any crimes that Costello got away with what about his duty to prove such crimes? MacMahon here invited a suspicion that in demanding 15 years for Costello he wanted revenge for a lot of incompetents or worse who hate the man because he wouldn't tell them he had done wrong and give them the details.

There is no more identity to the group described as "the easy-money boys" than there is to the Park Avenue pinks, crack-pots and fellow-travelers whose existence is denied by those who view with alarm the creation of a "climate of fear." If MacMahon has got anything on Erickson, Adonis, Lansky and Zwillman why doesn't he go after them instead of just bawling their names at a convicted man for the purpose of smearing him with a judge?

I will concede that Judge McGohey was not affected by this elocution, but I still insist that the five-year sentence for a failure to report income represents a grudge against Costello because of his bad reputation. That reputation was created by Senator Kefauver in his television show and by the newspapers. It is a bad commentary on our political system that, on the basis of that outlandish exhibition, Kefauver almost got the Democratic nomination in Chicago.

And what is wrong with dealing in cash? What law provides that people must deal in checks and keep accounts or that failure to do so is evidence of illicit business? I wish I didn't have to deal in checks and keep old receipts. But if I didn't MacMahon would call me a crook deserving 15 years in prison. One result of all this is that people have to spend hundreds of millions a year keeping accounts and paying tax consultants to give the right answers lest they be charged with perjury for telling what they believe to be the truth.

There is something very rotten here. Costello may be all that MacMahon says he is but he was up for sentence on a particular charge. MacMahon must have thought that charge wasn't very bad. Otherwise, why didn't he stick to the subject, which was tax evasion, not keeping bad company or failing to keep cancelled checks?

The same Treasury and Department of Justice which are so excited about this $51,000 case absolutely ignored a deficiency of one million dollars against Amtorg, an incorporated American company which carries on trade here for the Russian government. Amtorg is still in business and can be prosecuted. Roosevelt chilled that one. Why don't the Treasury and Justice go after a former vice president of the United States who was charged with a deficiency of $500,000?

SLOW DOWN AND LIVE

The experiences of law enforcement authorities show that nine out of ten accidents result from the action of drivers afflicted with the "in a hurry" complex. On the highways this viewpoint is expressed in the traffic violations involving speed, including speed too fast for conditions, following too closely, failing to yield right of way, improper passing and plain, excessive speed.

In an endeavor to reduce the terrible traffic toll on the highways, the authorities are going to deal severely with careless and reckless drivers. The peak period of travel on the highways in this and other areas will commence over the Memorial Day weekend. The campaign against the menace of the driver whose desire to be "first" imperils the thousands of cautious, courteous drivers will start at the same time.

The Greater New York Safety Council warns that automobile accidents will kill or injure several, vacation-bound college students during the next few weeks. The Council offers the following safety pointers for the collegiate motorists:

Stay a safe distance behind the car ahead. Highway pile-ups continue to be a serious problem.

Keep well within speed limits. Tests have shown that fast drivers don't reach their destinations much quicker than slow ones—who get there all in one piece.

If the trip is a long one don't do all the driving yourself. Take turns at the wheel with another passenger. If you have to make the trip alone stop often to rest.

Never keep driving when you feel tired. A government analysis of some 350 accidents revealed that fatigue was a factor in 37 per cent of them.

Always keep fresh air circulating.

MACHINES AND SMALL FARMS

Among the many changes that have taken place in the world of farming in the last generation or so, there has been a substantial increase in the size of the average farm.

One of the most important reasons for this is the great progress made in the use of farm equipment. Machinery, which gets more efficient and more durable all the time, has made it possible for each farmer to develop and till far more acreage than used to be the case, with much less physical effort.

But that doesn't mean that the age of the small, family farm is coming to an end—or that this kind of farm is unable to qualify for the benefits of mechanization. While the small farmer can't buy all the mechanized equipment that we see on the large farms, by cooperating with his neighbors, he can achieve a high degree of mechanization. One farmer buys one kind of machine, another buys another, and so on. Then they pool these invaluable and indefatigable mechanical laborers and get the work done—swiftly, and at minimum cost in money and human energy.

This is the age of the machine in farming just as it is in industry. And that is true of all modern farms, not just the larger ones.

CLEARER REPORTS

The Federal Trade Commission has ordered its employes who take part in hearings conducted by that body to write reports that anyone can understand. Anyone who has ever had to deal with a government agency will wish the FTC well in making the new policy work.

It is too much to expect that all reports on government affairs will be simple and easy to understand. Government is a complicated business and those who make out such reports are not always trained in the writing of lucid prose, however great their ability may be in other specialized fields.

Too often, however, reports which are essentially simple are made complicated and bewildering by a mass of technical and legal-sounding language. It often seems to be the policy among those who write the reports to use as many words as possible.

Ordering employes to write simplified reports and getting them to do so are two different matters. In can be hoped, however, that the FTC will have enough success with the idea to inspire other government agencies to try the same thing.

GUATEMALA

It is not casual that the Soviet Universal State selected Guatemala as a base for operations against the United States in the Americas. It is a populous country and the second largest in area in Central America. It lies on Mexico and the Hondurases. Its coastline touches both the Caribbean and the Pacific. Its influence can extend throughout Central America and into Mexico. It can be an excellent base to endanger the Panama Canal.

The country is rich in raw materials, bananas, hardwods, chicle, sugar cane, cochineal, and coffee. Bananas became the principal item for export and most definitely affected the standard of living of the people, which was dreadfully low. The population consists of Negroes, Caribs and Indians and the various combinations of these races.

The principal commercial enterprise in Guatemala was the United Fruit Company, which, under the Agrarian Reform Law, June 17, 1952, was divested of about 240,000 acres by expropriation. The assets of the International Railway of Central America were seized as the result of a tax dispute in April, 1953. Other companies have been confiscated.

Guatemala is now in that state of the Communist development known as a People's Republic. This means a coalition of Left Wing political parties, in which the Communists are numerically not prevailing, but which they control anyhow by techniques developed in other countries. The leading party is called the Revolutionary Action Party (PAR), which has 25 out of 56 members in the Congreso Nacional. This used to be a cover for Communists like the American Labor Party in New York State. Most of the leading Communists are now in their own party, but this was done only to make it possible for the dominant party to be able to deny that Guatemala is a Communist country.

It is interesting to note that all political parties in Guatemala are either wholly Communist or have a Communist group within them. The most moderate of these is the Partido de la Revolucion Guatemalteca. The President of the country is Colonel Jacobo Arbenez, who was elected for a six-year term in 1950. Almost immediately after his inauguration in March, 1951, the Communists came out into the open, leaving the cover party, the PAR, and by December, 1952, established their own party, the Guatemalan Workers' Party, which was legally registered and is now a member of the government coalition. Not a single fact justifies the claim that this is not a Communist country except that in the Aesopian language of the Marxists it would be called a People's Republic.

Soviet Russia has since 1934 sought to establish a base of operations either in Cuba or in Mexico. In Cuba, the Communists encountered the opposition of General Batista, who suspended the functions of Congress and abolished political parties temporarily. Batista seized power on March 10, 1952, and will hold it until the next general election, which has twice been postponed. The Communists have not been able to work under Batista. In Mexico, the Communist parties are legal but not included in the government. The labor leader, Vicente Lombardo Toledano, is generally regarded as the Communist leader not only of Mexico but of Latin America.

The failure to establish a Communist base in Mexico, after the Soviet diplomat, Constantine Oumansky, was killed in an airplane accident in 1945, forced the Russians to develop another base. Other Central American countries were tried, but Marxism took hold best in Guatemala, which is now the first country affiliated with the Soviet Universal State in the Americas.

It represents a distinct threat to the peace of these continents because, pursuing a Marxist course, it must encourage revolutionary action among all its neighbors. Immediate trouble is to be expected in the Hondurases, Costa Rica, Nicaragua and Venezuela. The most important next objective will be Colombia because of its proximity to the Panama Canal.

In the development of a revolution leading to the establishment of a People's Republic, arms are as essential as propagandists and penetrators into government. It must always be remembered that a confirmed Marxist, in whatever country, regards himself as belonging to the Soviet Universal State and not to his own country. Some may even be Russian citizens as are the Communist leaders in Korea. If Guatemala is to be the center of this operation, its operations in other countries will be supported by Marxists in those countries.

REASSURANCE FOR HEART PATIENTS

A great number of patients attribute conditions in which pain or distress is present to heart disease when, as a matter of fact, the heart is in no way involved in causing the pain. I wrote on the subject some years ago.

From the Medical Clinics of North America I quoted Drs. John Oille and William A. "Most patients consulting a physician for evaluation of discomfort which they impute to heart disease are suffering only from fear of heart disease, a fear often inadvertently instilled by a physician's ill-considered remark."

What these patients need is "positive" assurance that their hearts are sound and in order for the physician to make this statement with conviction it will generally be necessary to explain the underlying cause of all the patient's ills to him as simply and accurately as possible.

Patients with pains beneath the breast or pains extending from breast bone to armpits are frequently considerd as being caused by heart disease. Spondylitis—inflammation of one or more bones or joints of the spine—usually causes pain on one side (often the left), variable in location, intensity and the length of time it lasts. Dr. Oille states that this type of pain is never caused by heart disease. Also that heartburn is not a symptom of heart disease.

Pain from food and eating usually remains in the one spot. What is called "soldier's heart" (neurocirculatory asthenia) is said to be the hallmark of neurosis. "These patients need strong reassurance."

I believe reassurance is the greatest need of any heart patient.

Henry Wallace will love this. Remember how they beat the former secretary of agriculture and vice president over the head when he dared to suggest that the world would be a lot better place if every family could be sure of one quart of milk a day?

This was labeled as Henry's crazy idea for giving away milk to the Hottentots. It became a symbol of the New Deal give-away and a political campaign issue.

Well, Republican Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson has now announced that studies are being made on the feasibility of establishing milk reconstitution plants in Asia. The idea is to build up a market for surplus U. S. nonfat milk solids and other dairy products.

Each of the plants would cost from $200,000 to $500,000 and would provide a market for up to a million pounds of dry milk solids a year. Mixed with water, they would make 40,000 to 80,000 quarts of milk a day. The milk could even be made into ice cream.

So Wallace's proposal has now been topped. The GOP version is not milk for the Hottentots but "Ice Cream for the Asiatics."

Helping to dedicate a new portion of the frieze of historical scenes in the rotunda of the capitol, Vice President Richard M. Nixon said he felt that "Most of the members of the House and Senate are so busy with their official duties that we do not know as much about the capitol building as we should."

The vice president then confessed that, "Some day I should like to take time to join a guided tour of visitors and really find out something about this capitol."

Speaker of the House Joe Martin topped this one with a story about a senator whom he did not name but whose wealth, he said, "could be counted in millions.

"He acted as a guide one day for a wandering lady tourist," Speaker Martin related, "and he explained the capitol so well that the lady visitor rewarded him with a 25-cent tip."

He thanked her profusely, according to the speaker, then pocketed the quarter to save the lady embarrassment. He never told her that her guide was either a senator or a millionaire.

Armistice in Indochina Can Be Arranged, if Communists Will Agree

By DAVID LAWRENCE

Geneva, May 26 — They are heading now toward an armistice in Indochina—provided the Communists will agree. The technical work and the planning necessary to work out a military line in Vietnam which can be militarily safeguarded have begun. But the Communists give no sign of concurrence because the latest developments in the French Parliament open the door to a further exploitation of the French situation by Communist stalling.

Just as Allied unity began to make its appearance, with the splendid statements by Prime Minister Churchill in the British Parliament about American-British cooperation, the French Chamber of Deputies started to expose once more the weakness of the present French cabinet. The steady pressure of the opposition parties and elements in the government coalition to force a debate on Indochina is continuing. Once the debate occurs, the present government in Paris may fall and then negotiations here would be delayed.

This correspondent talked today with one of the leaders of the opposition group of the French Parliament, who insisted that the next government would be "more united" than the present regime. What he meant, of course, is "united" behind the ratification of the European defense community agreement, postponed until July, which is a long way off. Asked what a change in government would mean with respect to Indochina, he said it would be the forerunner of a policy of "saving the boys," and he referred to America's armistice in Korea as a significant precedent.

A canvass of the French situation reveals, on the other hand, that the sentiment for a strong policy of reorganization of the whole French command is growing and that, if the Geneva conference fails to produce an armistice, a comprehensive program of military action can be expected. This calls for an acceptance of the American offer to help train the native troops in Indochina and also for a command setup which is completely devoid of political interference from Paris. At any time now an announcement of the withdrawal of General Navarre from Indochina and the naming of a new commander-in-chief may be expected.

The countermoves planned—assuming an unwillingness on the part of the Communists to agree to an armistice—involve not only American cooperation in military training missions but the stepping up of supplies of a military character. Also there is in the works the plan referred to by Secretary of State Dulles at his press conference in Washington to bring the United Nations into the picture as an instrument for the protection of the integrity and independence of Laos and Cambodia, both of which countries have been invaded by Communist troops from across the border in Vietnam. Thailand, which has been threatened, will take the lead on the idea in the UN.

So the pressure on the Communists is threefold:

First, the American-French talks on a military plan to aid the defenders of Indo-China against aggression, which will be supplemented by staff talks in Washington starting on June 1 between the military chiefs of Britain, France, Australia, New Zealand and the United States. This planning will continue whether or not there is an armistice in Indo-China because it will be necessary to assure the inviolability of the truce line.

Second, the sending of a commission of the United Nations to observe and report to the UN general assembly as to aggression against Laos and Cambodia. This could mean United Nations action analogous to that which was taken in June 1950 in Korea.

Third, the formation of a permanent southeast Asia alliance, which now embraces a few states but which will include Great Britain as well as certain other Asian countries when the Geneva conference is concluded.

All these moves are being worked out now by the most intimate cooperation between Washington, Paris and London as well as Geneva. General Walter Bedell Smith, former American ambassador to Moscow and head of the American delegation here, is maintaining a close contact with Mr. Molotov as well as with Foreign Minister Eden and Foreign Minister Bidault. His skill as a diplomat as well as his background as a soldier—he was General Eisenhower's chief of staff during the Normandy invasion — have been commented upon by other allied delegates as particularly useful here.

The objective in Geneva still is peace. There is no desire to expand the war in Indo-China or to bring about American military intervention if it can possibly be avoided. None of the allies wants it, but the Communists are being left with no doubt that military action is a realistic alternative if they do not soon show a conciliatory attitude.

AS PEGLER SEES IT

By WESTBROOK PEGLER

New York, May 25 — I have searched without success for any expression of horror at the un-American smear of Frank Costello by Lloyd F. MacMahon, chief assistant U. S. attorney, in Judge McGohey's court the other day. The judge then gave Costello the outrageous sentence of 5 years in prison for evasion of $51,095 in income taxes.

MacMahon said: "To the man in the street, Costello is the symbol of the successful racketeer who, year after year, has flouted the law and gotten away with it. The sentence he receives will stand as an example for the easy-money boys who are Costello's friends, associates and admirers and also to everyone who is tempted to deal in cash and cheat the government.

"Even after years of the most painstaking investigation, government agents were not able to identify the specific source of the unreported income Costello received. His business associates have been open and notorious underworld characters, men like Frank Erickson, Joe Adonis, Meyer Lansky, Longie Zwillman and the late Willie Moretti. The list is a who's who of crime in the United States."

There is no such person as "the man in the street" and MacMahon and Judge McGohey know it. If there were such a person it wouldn't make a particle of difference what he thought of Costello. MacMahon and McGohey know that, too. And furthermore, MacMahon holds no credentials from this mythical "man in the street" to speak for him. If there were such a person, he might be a crook or a fool. Or a very decent fellow who would resent this inflammatory stump-speech by a man who is supposed to speak for the Department of Justice to which we look for the protection of our rights.

If Costello has flouted the law and "gotten away with it" that is a reproach to the men who are paid well to enforce laws, including MacMahon. It is not up to a criminal to accuse and convict himself. And the fact that he did get away with it should be regarded as proof that he didn't commit any crimes at all. Got away with what? If MacMahon knows of any crimes that Costello got away with what about his duty to prove such crimes? MacMahon here invited a suspicion that in demanding 15 years for Costello he wanted revenge for a lot of incompetents or worse who hate the man because he wouldn't tell them he had done wrong and give them the details.

There is no more identity to the group described as "the easy-money boys" than there is to the Park Avenue pinks, crack-pots and fellow-travelers whose existence is denied by those who view with alarm the creation of a "climate of fear." If MacMahon has got anything on Erickson, Adonis, Lansky and Zwillman why doesn't he go after them instead of just bawling their names at a convicted man for the purpose of smearing him with a judge?

I will concede that Judge McGohey was not affected by this elocution, but I still insist that the five-year sentence for a failure to report income represents a grudge against Costello because of his bad reputation. That reputation was created by Senator Kefauver in his television show and by the newspapers. It is a bad commentary on our political system that, on the basis of that outlandish exhibition, Kefauver almost got the Democratic nomination in Chicago.

And what is wrong with dealing in cash? What law provides that people must deal in checks and keep accounts or that failure to do so is evidence of illicit business? I wish I didn't have to deal in checks and keep old receipts. But if I didn't MacMahon would call me a crook deserving 15 years in prison. One result of all this is that people have to spend hundreds of millions a year keeping accounts and paying tax consultants to give the right answers lest they be charged with perjury for telling what they believe to be the truth.

There is something very rotten here. Costello may be all that MacMahon says he is but he was up for sentence on a particular charge. MacMahon must have thought that charge wasn't very bad. Otherwise, why didn't he stick to the subject, which was tax evasion, not keeping bad company or failing to keep cancelled checks?

The same Treasury and Department of Justice which are so excited about this $51,000 case absolutely ignored a deficiency of one million dollars against Amtorg, an incorporated American company which carries on trade here for the Russian government. Amtorg is still in business and can be prosecuted. Roosevelt chilled that one. Why don't the Treasury and Justice go after a former vice president of the United States who was charged with a deficiency of $500,000?

Plane Sets Fire To Lumber Yard

Newark, Del., May 26 (AP)—An Air Force twin engine plane crashed into a lumber yard in downtown Newark last night and exploded into a terrific blaze. No one was injured in the fire and the pilot and co-pilot safely parachuted over the city.

Dr. Wallace M. Johnson, mayor of this community of 8,000, said it was "incredibly fortunate" nobody was injured by the crash or fire in the center of town.

The C45 exploded on impact and the flames, fed by a half million dollars worth of lumber, leaped 100 feet into the air.

The two flyers were taken to the New Castle County Air Force Base near Wilmington, 12 miles northeast of Newark. A spokesman said an investigation into the cause of the crash would be held by New Castle base officers.

The plane was on a routine nonstop training flight from Mitchel Air Force Base, Long Island, N. Y., to Washington, D. C., and return.

The pilot, Capt. Leroy B. Hansen, 32, of Salt Lake City, Utah, said the ship suddenly developed engine trouble and when emergency measures failed, he and co-pilot Capt. Howard N. Franklyn, 32, of Medford, Mass., bailed out.

A Lot of Chips

Des Moines (AP)—There was joy in the big potato chip firm here when the first oven-heating bill came in after conversion from oil to gas. The fuel expense had been running about $500 a month; the first gas bill was $50 a month. It went along this way for some months. Then the gas company called to explain: For almost a year the gas meters in the chips plant had been misread; hundreds of units had been calculated in place of thousands. Would the chips firm please adjust to the tune of about $3,000?

She trades spare time for smiles

Like most of us, Kathryn McDonnell has a full working day. Her job, as an accounting supervisor for the telephone company, is a good job, an important job and one that she does well.

But on Thursday nights, Kathryn has another important job. It's a job that takes her to a local foundling hospital. There, from suppertime to bedtime, she's busy bathing and feeding the youngsters, getting them ready for the sandman and making sure everybody is tucked in snug for the night.

Kathryn is just one of the many telephone folks who serve their community on the job and off. In hundreds of towns all over the State, they bring their special skills to important community projects. These telephone friends and neighbors of yours typify the spirit that makes your telephone service so warm and so friendly—and so fast, clear and dependable at all times.

Committee Seeks Notch Road Action

The Stony Clove Parents' Committee interested in the Notch road, a four-mile section of State Highway 214 extending north from the Ulster-Greene county line, is still battling for state improvement of the strip, according to John Papp, chairman of the committee.

Papp wrote to President Eisenhower April 29 asking for his support "in helping us to obtain a new highway. We're certain that a word from you to Governor Dewey would expedite the final construction of the Notch road."

In his letter to the president Papp pointed out that two accidents had occurred on the Notch road section in the last several years due primarily to the condition of the highway.

President Eisenhower referred Papp's letter to the Bureau of Public Roads for a reply. In a letter to Papp, A. C. Clark, deputy commissioner of the Bureau of Public Roads, explained that $350,000 in federal-aid participation in the improvement on the Notch road had been allocated from funds apportioned to the state and that the programmed amount would continue to be available from currently apportioned funds unless the project "is withdrawn from the approved program at the request of the state."

He pointed out that the state had not yet submitted plans for the proposed improvement and that the project could only be advanced to the construction stage when the state submitted "satisfactory plans to our field office with assurance the necessary right-of-way has been acquired or right of entry obtained."

Says Delinquency Spreads

Atlantic City, N. J., May 26 (AP)—Juvenile delinquency is creeping from the wrong side to the right side of the tracks, says a government expert on youth who turn to crime. Bertram M. Beck, said today "the spread of delinquency throughout economic levels of our communities is a danger signal that must not be ignored." He told the National Congress of Parents and Teachers that 10 years ago most young delinquents were bred in big city slums. But today they have crossed the tracks and are popping up in the "better communities."

CONSTIPATED?

Mrs. Margaret Steere of Utica, New York, shares her discovery of relief with you!

"I'd like to tell the whole world how I finally got relief from constipation! Especially since I tried so many laxatives and didn't get the relief I wanted!

"On a friend's suggestion, I bought some Sal Hepatica at the drugstore. The next time I had that logy, headachy feeling due to constipation, I took a glass of sparkling Sal Hepatica a half hour before supper. And, by bedtime, believe me, I felt fit as a fiddle!"

Yes, take sparkling Sal Hepatica before breakfast and feel fine again . . . usually within an hour. Or, take it in the evening one-half hour before supper and feel fine again by bedtime! Sweetens sour stomach, too! So keep Sal Hepatica handy in your medicine chest.

New London, Conn. (AP)—A witness in Common Pleas Court referred to a "krik." The court stenographer, a recent import to Connecticut from Brooklyn, N. # The Battle for Asia hanging on, waiting for a Communist victory in Indochina. If that comes, a high British source told me, the Communists can be expected to step up the pressure of both their political and their shooting wars.

Views Based on Events

All three countries once based their view of events in Indochina on emotion. They wanted to see it only as a patriotic, Nationalist movement against the French. Communist Ho Chi Minh was looked upon as a Vietnamese patriot.

But today these three countries face bitter reality. One of Burma's outstanding leaders expressed his deep worry that Indochina meant "a progressive Communist encirclement of Burma."

In Thailand, the government casts a wary eye at the 50,000 people of Vietnamese extraction inside Thai borders who already are politically inclined toward Ho Chi Minh.

Such organizations as the Free Kachins from Burma and the Free Thais from Thailand sit in Red China. Some day the time may be ripe for them to return and set "internal" risings in motion.

Burma leaders, uncomfortably aware of the country's peril, say publicly they do not fear communism short of an invasion from China.

But a Burmese government leader told me there would be no official statement forthcoming on the Indochina situation because the government wanted to avoid antagonizing China.

Antagonism Meaningless

It is strange to American ears to hear Burmese leaders in public speeches denouncing the United States as a colonial power. The violent attacks are all against America. Privately, Burmese will admit that this is because there is nothing immediate to fear from Americans. There is from China.

Part of this anti-Americanism—and it is largely a superficial sentiment—stems from the presence in Burma of Chinese nationalist troops, for which Burma leaders blame the Americans. The troops escaped across Burma's frontier when the Communists won China's mainland.

"America was at least indirectly responsible," a government leader told me, "because the KMT (Kuomintang) troops were equipped with American arms and munitions. America feared Burma was going Communist and thus wanted to use the KMT."

He added that America's attitude evidently has changed, since the United States is helping to remove the Nationalist troops, but insisted the presence of the KMT had prevented Burma from taking a strong anti-Communist stand.

The Socialist party ruling Burma was founded as a Marxist party. It still is. The interpretation originally was close to Moscow communism. Now it is veering away from Moscow in a revolution against totalitarianism.

Burma, Thailand and Malaya all have a large Chinese population, and Chinese Communist propaganda pours into Burma and Thailand. In Malaya, the Communist movement is more than 95 per cent Chinese.

Tomorrow: Colonialism is still a devil to India.

WHY A VACATION?

Silly question Number 555? Not so silly when you think about some of the vacations people take. This is the time of year when we are all thinking and dreaming about vacations. It is the right time to ask yourself why you take a vacation and whether your usual vacation fills the bill.

Do you know a woman who moves her entire family, including four children and dog, from town to lake cottage every summer, who goes right on with her usual routine of housekeeping, clothes washing, and three meals a day without the labor-saving equipment she is used to at home? Her work takes twice as long as usual and she is lucky to get one quick dip in the lake per day. Haven't you wondered why she takes a "vacation?"

What is a vacation supposed to do for you? Business and industrial firms are convinced of its value. People should, they say, come back to work rested, full of new vigor and enthusiasm.

Before starting the family argument on "where shall we go this summer," try to decide what you want the vacation to do. Is physical rest the greatest need? Or is it mental rest away from the countless problems that seem to have taken up lodging in the very pillow you try to sleep on every night? Is it mental stimulation you need—adventure, new faces, and new places? Or physical stimulation to build up a healthier body?

It may be one or a combination of several of these needs that you want your vacation to fill. With thought and careful planning it can happen. And it can often be made to happen with half the expense of a haphazard "change of scene." It can even happen without leaving home at all.

Webster's definition of the word "vacation" is too narrow for most of us. A vacation should be much more than "a time of respite, an intermission or rest." It should be a high point in the year. It should give a mental and physical boost for all the months that follow. At the end of your vacation you should be able to say truthfully, "I feel just wonderful."

Three Are Held

Havana, Cuba, May 26 (AP)—Moving to nip off a reported plot against the government, intelligence agents took three persons into custody today, including a Cuban congressman. In a series of surprise raids centering in Havana's fashionable residential district, the agents seized Cesar Lancis, accused ringleader of the plot, and Francisco Cayrol, an authentic party congressman. They also picked up Jose Celo, a gardener working at the residence where Cayrol was arrested.

La Habra, Calif. (AP)—Roland Martone mailed a letter to Dewey Linze, an adventure-bound journalist, last July 28. It was addressed to South America. Somehow the letter went to South Pasadena to South Gate to South San Francisco and then to Iquitos, Peru. Last week the letter was returned to the sender. Martone put it in an envelope to Linze, readdressed it, added a note: "Don't want to open your mail. Please let me know what I said. I forgot."

all of your thoughts but will adequately express those thoughts. You realize, of course, that my task is an extremely difficult one because of the fact that I am merely a volunteer fireman while our guest of honor is both a volunteer and a professional fireman and that is also true of the composition of this gathering.

But, in the final analysis this dinner to Joe Murphy is, on the part of all of us, a very personal affair. It is not one of those official banquets with a formal list of formal speakers, talking on formal subjects into the small hours of the morning. Neither it is a political gathering, or in the strict sense of the words, a firemanic gathering, or a victory gathering or a gathering to hatch some mysterious plan.

The only label appropriate for this occasion is "Joe Murphy and His Friends," and knowing him as I do, I am certain that is the way he wants this occasion. Many of us have known him through years. Some of you have been associated with him for only a short time—but all of us have a common regard, a common affection for Joe Murphy, which transcends formality because it is based on the man himself.

50 Years of Service

History has recorded, and will continue to record, a great many interesting facts about Joe. In due time history will talk out loud about his younger days of local public service as a volunteer fireman. It will talk about his over 50 years of service to the City of Kingston over 30 of which he has served as its Fire Chief. It will speak of his fine service in the Ulster County Volunteer Firemen's Association, of which he is a charter member and as the chairman of the present mutual aid system of the county, which he was instrumental in organizing. It will also tell of his interest and work in Firemen's Association of the State of New York; the Hudson Valley Volunteer Firemen's Association; the New York State Fire Chief's Assn., and his service as it's president in 1935; the Ulster County Volunteer Firemen's Association and the Kingston Exempt and Veteran Firemen's Associations. History will tell of that service because he learned many years ago that man cannot live for self alone, and he is one of a great many more Americans who spend more time working for the common welfare than any other people in the world.

But when history is written, after all of us have passed from the scene, there will be something more important than the chronicle of success in accomplishment. Loyalty will be written there—that loyalty to friends which results in loyalty from friends.

Honor and decency will be written there—the honor and decency which have done much to raise the standards of public service in Kingston, predicated upon Joe's firemanic record.

Noted for His Courage

Good temper will be written there—the kind of good temper which is based on a sense of perspective, a sense of caution in the passing of judgment and a sense of forgiveness. In all of my years of association with Joe Murphy I have never once heard him utter one mean syllable about any human being. I have never heard him suggest reprisal—even though he has at times been compelled to swallow the bitter gall of defeat in firemanic contests. He knew how to take it on the chin and come up smiling. That means courage and there is no man that I know of who has more deep-seated thoroughgoing courage than he.

And as we turn the pages of the history of Joe Murphy we will find sobriety written there. I have known our guest of honor personally since the year 1934. It was back in that year that the Hudson Valley held a convention in Saugerties and Excelsior Hose Company No. 4 of the Kingston Fire Department had won a prize and somehow I had gotten back to their old quarters here in the city. Pandemonium reigned and joy was unconfined as the redshirted fire company celebrated their victory but through it all there was Joe Murphy calmly draining the contents of a soda-pop bottle. And thus it has been over all of the years.

Most certainly we will find dignity inscribed there—that dignity so essential to those who would lead that they might inspire respect and obedience of those who follow—BUT a dignity tempered with the understanding of the frailities of mankind, which has made him the splendid leader that he has been.

That his love for the pageantry of life will be found emblazoned on the record cannot be gainsaid. As far back as the year 1928 I can still picture him in my mind's eye as he lead the Hudson Valley parade up the hill from its starting point on Broadway and through the streets of Kingston, immaculate in his full dress uniform and down through the years up to last year at Lake George as he made a last minute check in the Fort William Henry Hotel of another brand-new uniform. And as I speak to you tonight in fancy I can see him at the head of another great Hudson Valley parade in Kingston next year which I hope will be dedicated to him.

Family Man, Good Citizen

And it MUST be written that Joe Murphy was a family man—a lover of home and dear ones; and his church and its obligations—a good citizen.

Somewhere long ago someone wrote:

"The friends thou hast, and
their adoption tried,
Grapple them to thy soul with
hoops of steel."

I sincerely believe that bespeaks the sentiments of all of those for whom I speak tonight so far as their relationship with our guest of honor is concerned. We all desire to hold his friendship at its highest worth and to give him our perfect confidence.

Back of it all ultimate history analysis the cause of human actions and human qualities. It will, I am confident, agree with my analysis when I say that Joe Murphy is not just a fireman with a big 'F' he is a fireman in the sense that he has faith in his fellowman. He likes to believe that men and women are fundamentally decent, fundamentally honest, and that if given a chance through democratic processes, their decisions will be fundamentally sound. Because of that belief he has made, and I hope through all the years to come will continue to make, a definite contribution to the success of the democratic processes of American institutions. Democracy is not a one-way street and Joe Murphy has learned that with its benefits comes the necessity of also giving service.

Finally I think I can safely say for all of you gathered here tonight that we love him for the friends he has made, men and women and children, both in and out of the fire service, not only here in Kingston but all up and down the Hudson Valley and throughout the State of New York. And so I ask you to join with me in wishing health and happiness, through all the years to come, to my friend and your friend, a faithful servant to the people of the State of New York, Joe Murphy.

Church Hall Fitting Place

Hugh A. Halligan, deputy fire chief of the New York City Fire Department, who brought a congratulatory message from the fire chief's convention in Elmira, said that it was proper and fitting to have this dinner in a church hall, because Fire Chief Murphy is a God-fearing man and George Washington, who worshipped at the church, was an active volunteer fireman.

Arthur C. Chipp presided and Supreme Court Justice Roscoe V. Elsworth was toastmaster.

Mayor Frederick H. Stang welcomed the guests and lauded the fire chief for his many years of efficient public service.

Leon A. Keator, president of the Ulster County Firemen's Association, introduced the guests and read congratulatory letters from fire department officials throughout the state and from Senator Arthur H. Wicks, who were unable to be present at the dinner.

Edward F. Mains, chairman of the board of directors of the Ulster County Firemen's Association, on behalf of the association presented Chief Murphy with a handsome clock.

Pays Tribute to Wife

In response to the many tributes, Chief Murphy said that he had thoroughly enjoyed his work down through the years and that he always tried to live up to the public trust that was placed in him. He said that his wife shared in his responsibilities and that any accomplishment recorded in his life was due in large measure to her cheerful and and unfaltering cooperation.

The Right Rev. Stephen P. Connelly, chaplain, gave the invocation and the Rev. Dr. Frank L. Gollnick, chaplain, pronounced the benediction.

The delicious dinner was prepared and expeditiously served by the ladies of the First Dutch Church.

Beautiful baskets of flowers, from friends of Chief Murphy at the Hutton Company, were placed at the speaker's table.

Members of the Dinner Committee were Arthur C. Chipp, chairman, Joseph Fassbender, treasurer, Jay Molyneaux and Albert Kurdt.

all of your thoughts but will adequately express those thoughts. You realize, of course, that my task is an extremely difficult one because of the fact that I am merely a volunteer fireman while our guest of honor is both a volunteer and a professional fireman and that is also true of the composition of this gathering.

But, in the final analysis this dinner to Joe Murphy is, on the part of all of us, a very personal affair. It is not one of those official banquets with a formal list of formal speakers, talking on formal subjects into the small hours of the morning. Neither it is a political gathering, or in the strict sense of the words, a firemanic gathering, or a victory gathering or a gathering to hatch some mysterious plan.

The only label appropriate for this occasion is "Joe Murphy and His Friends," and knowing him as I do, I am certain that is the way he wants this occasion. Many of us have known him through years. Some of you have been associated with him for only a short time—but all of us have a common regard, a common affection for Joe Murphy, which transcends formality because it is based on the man himself.

50 Years of Service

History has recorded, and will continue to record, a great many interesting facts about Joe. In due time history will talk out loud about his younger days of local public service as a volunteer fireman. It will talk about his over 50 years of service to the City of Kingston over 30 of which he has served as its Fire Chief. It will speak of his fine service in the Ulster County Volunteer Firemen's Association, of which he is a charter member and as the chairman of the present mutual aid system of the county, which he was instrumental in organizing. It will also tell of his interest and work in Firemen's Association of the State of New York; the Hudson Valley Volunteer Firemen's Association; the New York State Fire Chief's Assn., and his service as it's president in 1935; the Ulster County Volunteer Firemen's Association and the Kingston Exempt and Veteran Firemen's Associations. History will tell of that service because he learned many years ago that man cannot live for self alone, and he is one of a great many more Americans who spend more time working for the common welfare than any other people in the world.

But when history is written, after all of us have passed from the scene, there will be something more important than the chronicle of success in accomplishment. Loyalty will be written there—that loyalty to friends which results in loyalty from friends.

Honor and decency will be written there—the honor and decency which have done much to raise the standards of public service in Kingston, predicated upon Joe's firemanic record.

Noted for His Courage

Good temper will be written there—the kind of good temper which is based on a sense of perspective, a sense of caution in the passing of judgment and a sense of forgiveness. In all of my years of association with Joe Murphy I have never once heard him utter one mean syllable about any human being. I have never heard him suggest reprisal—even though he has at times been compelled to swallow the bitter gall of defeat in firemanic contests. He knew how to take it on the chin and come up smiling. That means courage and there is no man that I know of who has more deep-seated thoroughgoing courage than he.

And as we turn the pages of the history of Joe Murphy we will find sobriety written there. I have known our guest of honor personally since the year 1934. It was back in that year that the Hudson Valley held a convention in Saugerties and Excelsior Hose Company No. 4 of the Kingston Fire Department had won a prize and somehow I had gotten back to their old quarters here in the city. Pandemonium reigned and joy was unconfined as the redshirted fire company celebrated their victory but through it all there was Joe Murphy calmly draining the contents of a soda-pop bottle. And thus it has been over all of the years.

Most certainly we will find dignity inscribed there—that dignity so essential to those who would lead that they might inspire respect and obedience of those who follow—BUT a dignity tempered with the understanding of the frailities of mankind, which has made him the splendid leader that he has been.

That his love for the pageantry of life will be found emblazoned on the record cannot be gainsaid. As far back as the year 1928 I can still picture him in my mind's eye as he lead the Hudson Valley parade up the hill from its starting point on Broadway and through the streets of Kingston, immaculate in his full dress uniform and down through the years up to last year at Lake George as he made a last minute check in the Fort William Henry Hotel of another brand-new uniform. And as I speak to you tonight in fancy I can see him at the head of another great Hudson Valley parade in Kingston next year which I hope will be dedicated to him.

Family Man, Good Citizen

And it MUST be written that Joe Murphy was a family man—a lover of home and dear ones; and his church and its obligations—a good citizen.

Somewhere long ago someone wrote:

"The friends thou hast, and
their adoption tried,
Grapple them to thy soul with
hoops of steel."

I sincerely believe that bespeaks the sentiments of all of those for whom I speak tonight so far as their relationship with our guest of honor is concerned. We all desire to hold his friendship at its highest worth and to give him our perfect confidence.

Back of it all ultimate history analysis the cause of human actions and human qualities. It will, I am confident, agree with my analysis when I say that Joe Murphy is not just a fireman with a big "F" he is a fireman in the sense that he has faith in his fellowman. # City Court Jury Frees Thompson in Drunk Driver Case

A city court jury which deliberated about a half hour yesterday after one of the longest trials on record for a defendant charged with driving while intoxicated, returned a verdict of innocent for Harvey Thompson, 40, of Hurley Heights.

The selection of a jury started last Friday and the case went to the jury shortly before 3 p. m. yesterday.

Thompson was arrested last Feb. 19 by Officers Louis Sapp, and Edward Edwards on the charge, after a jeep he was driving allegedly struck a parked car on Warren street.

Shortly after the Thompson arrest, because of other findings favoring defendants charged with driving while intoxicated, and because they felt their testimony as professional men was virtually ridiculed in trial, two police physicians, Dr. Peter D. Corsones and Dr. Alfred W. Harder resigned.

One of 14 Witnesses

Dr. Corsones had been called on the Thompson case, however, and he was among the 14 witnesses called during the trial before City Judge Raymond J. Mino.

Police said that at 4:59 p. m., Feb. 9 Thompson was driving east on Warren street when the jeep struck the parked car of Judith Prieto, of 150 Washington avenue, which was parked facing west on Warren street. A headlight, the left side and left front fender of the parked car were reported damaged.

Attorney Frank Martocci appeared for the defendant and John Schick for the district attorney's office in the city court trial.

Those on Jury

Those who served on the jury, all women, were: Anna L. Jackson, 239 Catherine street; Elizabeth M. Reiker, 12 Hemlock avenue; Priscilla May, 6 Washington avenue; Margaret G. Perry, 3 Grandview avenue; Bessie Bell, 425 Albany avenue, and Mary J. Simonetty, 596 Broadway.

Services Are Held Honoring SeaDead

Despite threatening skies there was a good attendance on the dock facing Rondout Creek at the foot of Canal street Sunday afternoon to participate in and witness the annual observance honoring the veterans of all wars participated in by the United States, who sacrificed their lives at sea.

This service, first observed in 1914, has been carried on by Auxiliary 53, of Tappen Camp 1, Sons of Union Veterans of the Civil War, yearly on the banks of the Hudson river at Kingston Point but of late years on the Rondout creek. When started, the only veterans' organizations participating, besides the Sons of Veterans and the Auxiliary, were the Grand Army of the Republic and the United Spanish War veterans. The service is now sponsored by the Kingston Veterans Association with all veteran organizations participating.

Music was supplied by the Salvation Army band, Capt. Rosalie Davis, conducting. The band accompanied the assembly in singing of the National Anthem, America, and Nearer My God to Thee. They also gave two selections, The Navy Hymn and Call Out the Army. A recitation, The Boatman was given by Miss Carol Beesmer. Strewing of flowers upon the waters was by all organizations represented with appropriate remarks by the leaders of the organizations.

Ask Call to Duty

Addresses were given by City Clerk Bernhardt Kramer, representing the city, and the Rev. Clarance E. Brown, county commander of the American Legion, each of the speakers basing their address on the call to duty of all citizens and organizations to carry on the work started by our forefathers and promulgated throughout the years by the organizations which have grown from those conflicts.

Attorney Robert A. McKinnon, president of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, and the Rev. James Dunnigan, chaplain of Joyce-Schirick Post, 1386, Veterans of Foreign Wars, in their addresses based their remarks on the navy and its origin, customs and history. The invocation and benediction were given by the Rev. Sampson M. Greene, pastor of Franklin Street AME Zion Church, while the pledge of allegiance to the flag was given by the assemblage, led by Father Dunnigan. The volleys in honor of our heroic dead were fired over the waters by a firing squad composed of members of the Ulster Detachment, Marine Corps League, Francis X. Clark, commandant, with taps sounded by John R. Mayone of the Marine Corps. James H. Krom, commander of Tappen Camp 1, Sons of Union Veterans of the Civil War, was chairman of the service.

Selection Postponed

New York, May 26 (AP)—The New York Republican State Committee today postponed selection of a national committeeman to succeed J. Russel Sprague of Nassau county. Sprague resigned last November. The state committee met at the Hotel Astor.

Name's the Same

Pottstown, Pa. (AP)—The two Frank Hartenstines who live here didn't mind having the same name too much until Uncle Sam's tax collectors began to confuse the issue. It seems one Hartenstine got the other's tax bill. The matter was finally straightened out when the two men, both natives of Pottstown and about the same age, took joint action to convince the revenue department there were really two Frank Hartenstines. The Hartenstines said they have gotten to know each other quite well settling similar difficulties with other bill collections.

Shattering Speed

Detroit (AP)—Gerald A. Page rushed his wife to the hospital maternity center. One hand on his wife's arm and the other clutching an overnight bag, Page walked through the center's glass door and shattered it. He was treated for cuts while waiting for the arrival of his child.

THE HIKER — Bert Melenephy, 70, on his crutches stops for a rest near Morristown, Ohio. The aged man, with two broken legs in casts, is walking from Pittsburgh, Pa., to Cincinnati, where he hopes to find work. He sleeps in old cars and brush piles along the road when he's unable to find other shelter.

FOR A GIANT — This king-size ring probably fitted the legendary Paul Bunyan well, but it looks like more of a millstone around the neck of Millie McKirdy, of St. Paul, Minn. The ring is part of the Bunyan exhibit at the University of Minnesota.

Civil Defense Test Requires Backing

"Operation Alert," the nationwide civil defense test scheduled for June 14 and 15 will demand the cooperation of every citizen, H. Edgar Timmerman, deputy director for public information of the Ulster-Kingston Civil Defense Council, told members of the Lions Club at their regular luncheon meeting at the Governor Clinton Hotel on Tuesday.

Outlining the local defense organization, Major Timmerman noted that this county has been designated as a support area for New York and in the event of an attack upon that city will be called upon to care for an estimated 30,000 to 40,000 evacuees. Four reception centers have been set up at Kingston, New Paltz, Ellenville and Saugerties.

Although top level plans are already functioning, Civil Defense is suffering from a lack of public interest, he said. He pointed out, particularly, the need for spotters to serve with the Kingston observation post, which is manned 24 hours a day, seven days a week. He urged Lions Club members to contact Mrs. George Dewey Logan, post supervisor, and offer their services as spotters, or to contact the Civil Defense office in the city hall for an assignment suited to their abilities.

Kingston citizens will hear the CD sirens for the first time "probably next week," Timmerman revealed. The time for the testing of the sirens will be announced publicly in advance, se said.

McCarthy Walks Out

face to face on the train.

White had moved like a politician through the first nine cars, shaking hands with stockholders and expecting to meet Young at any moment. But Young, who had been in the seventh car at the start, had worked his way to the rear observation car, where he was holding court at the moment White left the train.

Young also walked through the cars, shaking hands and promising stockholders he would raise dividends on the stock.

When Young was told of White's departure, he said: "He's been avoiding me ever since Feb. 2 when I asked him to become my chief executive officer. I see he's still doing it."

Young told G. B. McInroy of Pasadena, Calif., holder of 2,500 shares, that I'm going to outvote White by at least 800,000 shares." That happens to be the exact number purchased by two Texas friends of Young.

Texans Not on Hand

Young told McInroy that the Texans would not be in Albany today, "probably because their feelings have been hurt" by Central's attempts to bar their proxies.

When Young reached the observation car, the crowd pressed around him, a small man among many taller people. He restated his stand for higher dividends under the glare of television lights.

City Court Jury Frees Thompson in Drunk Driver Case

A city court jury which deliberated about a half hour yesterday after one of the longest trials on record for a defendant charged with driving while intoxicated, returned a verdict of innocent for Harvey Thompson, 40, of Hurley Heights.

The selection of a jury started last Friday and the case went to the jury shortly before 3 p. m. yesterday.

Thompson was arrested last Feb. 19 by Officers Louis Sapp, and Edward Edwards on the charge, after a jeep he was driving allegedly struck a parked car on Warren street.

Shortly after the Thompson arrest, because of other findings favoring defendants charged with driving while intoxicated, and because they felt their testimony as professional men was virtually ridiculed in trial, two police physicians, Dr. Peter D. Corsones and Dr. Alfred W. Harder resigned.

One of 14 Witnesses

Dr. Corsones had been called on the Thompson case, however, and he was among the 14 witnesses called during the trial before City Judge Raymond J. Mino.

Police said that at 4:59 p. m., Feb. 9 Thompson was driving east on Warren street when the jeep struck the parked car of Judith Prieto, of 150 Washington avenue, which was parked facing west on Warren street. A headlight, the left side and left front fender of the parked car were reported damaged.

Attorney Frank Martocci appeared for the defendant and John Schick for the district attorney's office in the city court trial.

Those on Jury

Those who served on the jury, all women, were: Anna L. Jackson, 239 Catherine street; Elizabeth M. Reiker, 12 Hemlock avenue; Priscilla May, 6 Washington avenue; Margaret G. Perry, 3 Grandview avenue; Bessie Bell, 425 Albany avenue, and Mary J. Simonetty, 596 Broadway.

Services Are Held Honoring SeaDead

Despite threatening skies there was a good attendance on the dock facing Rondout Creek at the foot of Canal street Sunday afternoon to participate in and witness the annual observance honoring the veterans of all wars participated in by the United States, who sacrificed their lives at sea.

This service, first observed in 1914, has been carried on by Auxiliary 53, of Tappen Camp 1, Sons of Union Veterans of the Civil War, yearly on the banks of the Hudson river at Kingston Point but of late years on the Rondout creek. When started, the only veterans' organizations participating, besides the Sons of Veterans and the Auxiliary, were the Grand Army of the Republic and the United Spanish War veterans. The service is now sponsored by the Kingston Veterans Association with all veteran organizations participating.

Music was supplied by the Salvation Army band, Capt. Rosalie Davis, conducting. The band accompanied the assembly in singing of the National Anthem, America, and Nearer My God to Thee. They also gave two selections, The Navy Hymn and Call Out the Army. A recitation, The Boatman was given by Miss Carol Beesmer. Strewing of flowers upon the waters was by all organizations represented with appropriate remarks by the leaders of the organizations.

Ask Call to Duty

Addresses were given by City Clerk Bernhardt Kramer, representing the city, and the Rev. Clarance E. Brown, county commander of the American Legion, each of the speakers basing their address on the call to duty of all citizens and organizations to carry on the work started by our forefathers and promulgated throughout the years by the organizations which have grown from those conflicts.

Attorney Robert A. McKinnon, president of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, and the Rev. James Dunnigan, chaplain of Joyce-Schirick Post, 1386, Veterans of Foreign Wars, in their addresses based their remarks on the navy and its origin, customs and history. The invocation and benediction were given by the Rev. Sampson M. Greene, pastor of Franklin Street AME Zion Church, while the pledge of allegiance to the flag was given by the assemblage, led by Father Dunnigan. The volleys in honor of our heroic dead were fired over the waters by a firing squad composed of members of the Ulster Detachment, Marine Corps League, Francis X. Clark, commandant, with taps sounded by John R. Mayone of the Marine Corps. James H. Krom, commander of Tappen Camp 1, Sons of Union Veterans of the Civil War, was chairman of the service.

Selection Postponed

New York, May 26 (AP)—The New York Republican State Committee today postponed selection of a national committeeman to succeed J. Russel Sprague of Nassau county. Sprague resigned last November. The state committee met at the Hotel Astor.

Name's the Same

Pottstown, Pa. (AP)—The two Frank Hartenstines who live here didn't mind having the same name too much until Uncle Sam's tax collectors began to confuse the issue. It seems one Hartenstine got the other's tax bill. The matter was finally straightened out when the two men, both natives of Pottstown and about the same age, took joint action to convince the revenue department there were really two Frank Hartenstines. The Hartenstines said they have gotten to know each other quite well settling similar difficulties with other bill collections.

Shattering Speed

Detroit (AP)—Gerald A. Page rushed his wife to the hospital maternity center. One hand on his wife's arm and the other clutching an overnight bag, Page walked through the center's glass door and shattered it. He was treated for cuts while waiting for the arrival of his child.

THE HIKER — Bert Melenephy, 70, on his crutches stops for a rest near Morristown, Ohio. The aged man, with two broken legs in casts, is walking from Pittsburgh, Pa., to Cincinnati, where he hopes to find work. He sleeps in old cars and brush piles along the road when he's unable to find other shelter.

FOR A GIANT — This king-size ring probably fitted the legendary Paul Bunyan well, but it looks like more of a millstone around the neck of Millie McKirdy, of St. Paul, Minn. The ring is part of the Bunyan exhibit at the University of Minnesota.

Civil Defense Test Requires Backing

"Operation Alert," the nationwide civil defense test scheduled for June 14 and 15 will demand the cooperation of every citizen, H. Edgar Timmerman, deputy director for public information of the Ulster-Kingston Civil Defense Council, told members of the Lions Club at their regular luncheon meeting at the Governor Clinton Hotel on Tuesday.

Outlining the local defense organization, Major Timmerman noted that this county has been designated as a support area for New York and in the event of an attack upon that city will be called upon to care for an estimated 30,000 to 40,000 evacuees. Four reception centers have been set up at Kingston, New Paltz, Ellenville and Saugerties.

Although top level plans are already functioning, Civil Defense is suffering from a lack of public interest, he said. He pointed out, particularly, the need for spotters to serve with the Kingston observation post, which is manned 24 hours a day, seven days a week. He urged Lions Club members to contact Mrs. George Dewey Logan, post supervisor, and offer their services as spotters, or to contact the Civil Defense office in the city hall for an assignment suited to their abilities.

Kingston citizens will hear the CD sirens for the first time "probably next week," Timmerman revealed. The time for the testing of the sirens will be announced publicly in advance, se said.

McCarthy Walks Out

Washington, May 26 (AP)—Sen. McCarthy, saying testimony about Pvt. G. David Schine's army life was "drivel," stalked out of the McCarthy-Army hearings today. He said he would return when the "drivel" was finished.

Banquet Sunday Marks Anniversary of Merger

Saugerties, May 26 — Ulster County Surrogate John B. Sterley and County Judge John M. Cashin addressed the banquet of the Italian-American Club at which nearly 150 persons attended Sunday afternoon at the Isle of Capri Restaurant.

It marked the fifth anniversary of the merging of the Marconi Club with the Italian-American Club in 1949.

Sees Expansion

Surrogate Sterley observed that Ulster county is on the brink of the greatest industrial development it has seen or can ever hope to see and at the same time urged banking and investment interests in the area to meet the challenge of future growth. He further commented on the housing development projects now in progress in the Saugerties area and singled out the project of Philip A. Gatti, president of the Italian-American Club when he said that Gatti was one who was meeting the challenge of the future.

Judge Cashin reviewed the responsibility of being an American citizen and urged the club toward the purpose of maintaining "our American heritage inviolate."

Gatti welcomed the gathering and asked for club unity in carrying out the operations of the group. His main objective was stressing the need for closer cooperation in order that the club may build its own clubhouse. Judge Cashin and Surrogate Sterley both pledged $100 toward the building fund which was established.

Louis P. Francello, Saugerties attorney, served as toastmaster.

Supervisor Peter Williams and District Attorney Howard C. St. John both spoke briefly.

Those introduced were City Judge Raymond Mino of Kingston, Town Councilman Frank Greco, Coroner Michael A. Gailietta and Bertram W. Burns, editor of The Saugerties Post.

Special distinction was made in the introduction of James D'Ambrosio who was president of the Marconi Club and Dominick Greco who was president of the Italian-American Club at the time of the merger.

The banquet committee included D'Ambrosio, Peter Monteleone, Gatti, Michael Petramale, Thomas Misasi, Vincent Di Stasio, Anthony Merola and James Naccarato.

Mullen also was charged with unlicensed operation of a vehicle and driving without insurance. He paid fines of $20 on these two charges when arraigned before Justice of the Peace W. Gruner of the town of Lloyd.

Banquet Sunday Marks Anniversary of Merger

Saugerties, May 26 — Ulster County Surrogate John B. Sterley and County Judge John M. Cashin addressed the banquet of the Italian-American Club at which nearly 150 persons attended Sunday afternoon at the Isle of Capri Restaurant.

It marked the fifth anniversary of the merging of the Marconi Club with the Italian-American Club in 1949.

Sees Expansion

Surrogate Sterley observed that Ulster county is on the brink of the greatest industrial development it has seen or can ever hope to see and at the same time urged banking and investment interests in the area to meet the challenge of future growth. He further commented on the housing development projects now in progress in the Saugerties area and singled out the project of Philip A. Gatti, president of the Italian-American Club when he said that Gatti was one who was meeting the challenge of the future.

Judge Cashin reviewed the responsibility of being an American citizen and urged the club toward the purpose of maintaining "our American heritage inviolate."

Gatti welcomed the gathering and asked for club unity in carrying out the operations of the group. His main objective was stressing the need for closer cooperation in order that the club may build its own clubhouse. Judge Cashin and Surrogate Sterley both pledged $100 toward the building fund which was established.

Louis P. Francello, Saugerties attorney, served as toastmaster.

Supervisor Peter Williams and District Attorney Howard C. St. John both spoke briefly.

Those introduced were City Judge Raymond Mino of Kingston, Town Councilman Frank Greco, Coroner Michael A. Gailietta and Bertram W. Burns, editor of The Saugerties Post.

Special distinction was made in the introduction of James D'Ambrosio who was president of the Marconi Club and Dominick Greco who was president of the Italian-American Club at the time of the merger.

The banquet committee included D'Ambrosio, Peter Monteleone, Gatti, Michael Petramale, Thomas Misasi, Vincent Di Stasio, Anthony Merola and James Naccarato.

Wallkill Youth Is Held for Jury on Alleged Car Theft

Mullen also was charged with unlicensed operation of a vehicle and driving without insurance. He paid fines of $20 on these two charges when arraigned before Justice of the Peace W. Gruner of the town of Lloyd.

Think It Through

By EDWARD F. HUTTON

In Berlin, four men have been attempting to sweeten a sour dish.

Before the war, Mr. Churchill's opinion of Mussolini appeared in Collier's Magazine. Mussolini had just stated: "Democracy is a dirty rag to be crushed under foot." Churchill replied to Mussolini: "If I were an Italian, I would have been with you from the beginning to the end of your victorious struggle against the bestial appetites of Leninism." Twelve months later, he said that Mussolini was a greater man than George Washington or Cromwell. Sir Winston's opinion of Cromwell was his opinion, and you are free to accept or reject it.

Mr. Hutton

Our opinion of George Washington, who made freedom possible for our thirteen colonies, and is "first in the hearts of his countrymen," is not to be mentioned in the same breath with Mussolini and his mistress, who were destroyed by the hands of his resentful people.

The lights are dim in once free Europe. France has lost her soul. The disease which kept men in slavery for centuries is returning again. That disease is Big Government. It has crossed the ocean to our shores of freedom.

In the horse and buggy days, life was simple. Two and two made four. Those were the "bad old days." Now we have the present "good" new days - - - plenty of taxes, plenty of controls and plenty of big government. The cost is $65,000,000,000 a year. The little people pay for the Big Government.

It looks over-priced to me. The price of coffee has gone up four times, and that of Government twenty-two times.

Mt. Tremper

Mt. Tremper, May 26 — Miss Catherine Feller, Mrs. Louise White, Mrs. Barbara Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. George Feller of New York and Mount Tremper reopened the family home on the Wittenberg road this weekend. Miss Feller and Mrs. Johnson plan to remain here for some time. Miss Feller is recuperating from a recent illness.

Barney Mellevold celebrated a birthday Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. John T. Harrison and two children visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Harrison at their home on the Willow road recently.

William Cassens is reported to be ill at his home.

A surprise bridal shower was given in honor of Miss Doris May at the home of Mrs. Harry Carle Saturday evening. The house was especially decorated for the occasion and the shower gifts were displayed under a festooned parasol. Refreshments were served and each guest received a tiny parasol as a souvenir. Those attending included: Mrs. Loren Buley, Mrs. Richard Byron, Mrs. Frank Carle, Sr., Mrs. Frank Carle, Jr., Mrs. Harry Carle, Mrs. Herbert Epstein, Mrs. Reginald Every, Sr., Mrs. Alonzo Gale, Mrs. Joseph Haver, Mrs. Lorraine Hoyt, Mrs. Lindsay Hoyt, Miss Sharon Hoover, Mrs. Chester Janick, Mrs. Robert Kraus, Mrs. Dick Kahil, Mrs. Burton Lane, Mrs. Francis Lane, Mrs. August May, Mrs. Thomas McCrosson, Mrs. James Pymm, Mrs. Alfred Ramsell, Miss Merrill Tezalaar, Mrs. David Tooker, Mrs. Howard Umhey, Mrs. K. Umhey, Mrs. O. Umhey, Mrs. S. Wells, Mrs. B. Winne, Sr., Mrs. Roger Winne and Mrs. Ernest Worden. Miss May will marry R. Allen Carle in the Wittenberg Methodist Church, Sunday June 27. Those sending gifts but who were unable to attend the shower were: Mrs. Alta de Silva, Mrs. Reginald Every, Jr., Mrs. Richard Kleine and Mrs. Barney Mellevold.

A large crew of volunteer workmen aided in the installation of the overhead doors in the Mount Tremper firehouse Sunday morning. They also installed most of the galvanized roofing on the building.

Bernard Brinks recently returned from a fishing trip to Canada, where he and his companion caught a large quantity of northern pike.

Miss Sharon Hoover is here on a visit to friends and realtives in this area. She arrived Saturday from Ohio, where she recently completed a course in beauty culture. Miss Hoover plans to return to Ohio in a few days.

Charles Steixner of New York spent the weekend at the home of his mother, Miss Rose Steixner, on the Wittenberg road.

Escaped cows were the cause of a minor accident on the Wittenberg road Sunday afternoon. The cows, who had been grazing in a field, broke the fence and dashed into the road, forcing an oncoming automobile to swerve into a ditch near the Will house.

A farewell dinner was given in honor of the Rev. William Galvin at the Phoenicia Hotel Sunday evening. Father Galvin has been transferred to a parish in Connecticut and left Phoenicia Tuesday to assume his new duties.

month for which figures were available — New Yorkers drank 201 million quarts of milk, a department spokesman said.

The governor's milk committee is headed by Jacob Pratt of Schaghticoke, president of Milk For Health Inc., a promotion organization.

It has about $600,000 in private funds to spend on advertising.

Among the promotional ideas advanced at the meeting were: Campaigns for relayed products used with milk, such as breakfast foods and fruits, and a proposal to install milk-vending machines in factories, offices and schools.

Some milk is imported from other states, principally for the New York metropolitan area, but the department said the state exports slightly more than it brings in.

Milk experts lay the current record surplus to these factors:

1. Milk production regularly drops in the fall and rises in the spring. There is bound to be a surplus in the spring because it is necessary to have enough cows to meet the fall demand.

2. Prices are falling, and farmers tend to supply more milk in a dropping market to raise cash to pay their bills. The production boost drives the farmers' return still further down.

3. Consumption has fallen in the state from 1:161 pints per person per day in 1945 to 1.011 pints last year. The drop is attributed to post-war thirst for fresh milk, and more drinking of skim milk—which is counted as surplus.

4. Inadequate promotion of milk-drinking. Industry spokesmen say that test advertising campaigns have increased milk consumption sharply in some areas.

She was traveling west on Route 212, Dunn said, when something happened to the steering wheel and she lost control of the car. She was treated at the Van Wagenen home by Dr. Hans Cohn of Woodstock.

Pham Van Dong, the Vietminh minister, put forward a plan yesterday which emphasized earlier Communist claims on parts of Laos and Cambodia.

The Communists maintain the two kingdoms are engaged in civil wars against "resistance governments" composed of their own citizens.

The governments of the two kingdoms categorically reject this. They say the Communists fighting in their territory are invaders who should withdraw.

Private consultations were in progress today among the delegates to redraft the Eden plan and to persuade Molotov to agree to discussing a possible cease fire in Viet Nam without implications for Laos and Cambodia. Eden was to meet with Molotov.

Reports Gas Stolen

One theft and two apparent attempts at stealing were reported to the police yesterday. D. J. Schrader, 174 Hasbrouck avenue, reported to the police at 8:40 p. m., that five gallons of gasoline had been taken from his son's car during the previous night. A report from the gas station at Flatbush and Foxhall avenue indicated that an attempt had been made to enter that place. Marks were found on a door. At 12:46 p. m., Mrs. Paul Borenstein, 115 Second avenue, reported that her husband's car was damaged while it was parked in front of 142 Broadway Monday night. Two ventilating windows were reported broken, and a window of a door on the driver's side was broken, but nothing was reported missing.

Bicycles Are Found

Sgt. Lemuel Howard of the local police said early this afternoon that three bicycles recently reported stolen were found abandoned under the Rondout creek bridge on the Port Ewen side today. Several bicycle thefts were reported during the past few days and police yesterday arrested one young man charged with one of the thefts.

Dairy Industry

month for which figures were available — New Yorkers drank 201 million quarts of milk, a department spokesman said.

The governor's milk committee is headed by Jacob Pratt of Schaghticoke, president of Milk For Health Inc., a promotion organization.

It has about $600,000 in private funds to spend on advertising.

Among the promotional ideas advanced at the meeting were: Campaigns for relayed products used with milk, such as breakfast foods and fruits, and a proposal to install milk-vending machines in factories, offices and schools.

Some milk is imported from other states, principally for the New York metropolitan area, but the department said the state exports slightly more than it brings in.

Milk experts lay the current record surplus to these factors:

1. Milk production regularly drops in the fall and rises in the spring. There is bound to be a surplus in the spring because it is necessary to have enough cows to meet the fall demand.

2. Prices are falling, and farmers tend to supply more milk in a dropping market to raise cash to pay their bills. The production boost drives the farmers' return still further down.

3. Consumption has fallen in the state from 1:161 pints per person per day in 1945 to 1.011 pints last year. The drop is attributed to post-war thirst for fresh milk, and more drinking of skim milk—which is counted as surplus.

4. Inadequate promotion of milk-drinking. Industry spokesmen say that test advertising campaigns have increased milk consumption sharply in some areas.

Kalamazoo, Mich. (AP)—A hospital in Kalamazoo is offering free medical care to prospective mothers if: The child is the mother's fifth, sixth, seventh, or eighth and it is born in 1954. The The Sisters of St. Joseph, who operate the hospital, say it makes no difference where the prospective parents live as long as the child is delivered at the hospital.

Lake Hill Woman Hurt As Auto Hits Boulder

Louise Peterson, 40, of Lake Hill, suffered lacerations of the head and body about 1 a. m. Tuesday when her 1953 coach crashed into a large boulder in front of the home of Virgil Van Wagenen at the intersection of the Wittenberg-Lake Hill roads, according to Cpl. Ray Dunn of Phoeincia.

She was traveling west on Route 212, Dunn said, when something happened to the steering wheel and she lost control of the car. She was treated at the Van Wagenen home by Dr. Hans Cohn of Woodstock.

Pham Van Dong, the Vietminh minister, put forward a plan yesterday which emphasized earlier Communist claims on parts of Laos and Cambodia.

The Communists maintain the two kingdoms are engaged in civil wars against "resistance governments" composed of their own citizens.

The governments of the two kingdoms categorically reject this. They say the Communists fighting in their territory are invaders who should withdraw.

Private consultations were in progress today among the delegates to redraft the Eden plan and to persuade Molotov to agree to discussing a possible cease fire in Viet Nam without implications for Laos and Cambodia. Eden was to meet with Molotov.

Erection of New Nurses' School Plan In Present Program

The Benedictine Hospital Alumnae Association sponsored a dinner Sunday afternoon at the Governor Clinton Hotel to celebrate the 50th anniversary of the School of Nursing. Miss Ida M. Zanni, president of the alumnae, welcomed the group and introduced Dr. Edward F. Shea, a member of the teaching staff of the school, who presided as master of ceremonies.

The Invocation was given by the Rev. Adam Otterbein C.Ss.R. Among the guests who greeted the group and expressed congratulations on this Golden Jubilee were Mrs. Guy Valeo, president of the Ladies' Auxiliary; Dr. William S. Bush, chief of staff; the Right Rev. Martin J. Drury, chairman of the Executive Committee; and the Very Rev. Joseph Comyns, rector of Mount Saint Alphonsus, Esopus.

Sister M. Berenice, superintendent of the hospital, in her address to the group stated, "It is indeed a privilege for us today who have spent the greater portion of our lives in giving service to the people of Kingston and all Ulster county to recall and thank Almighty God for having given our devoted and courageous Sister Aloysius the vision and foresight to have selected the beautiful and spacious site on which stands today the Benedictine Hospital and first nurses' residence erected in 1920.

We have come a long way along the road to proper importance and stature for the Benedictine Hospital and we would be falsely modest today if we our president, Rt. Rev. Monsignor Drury, doctors, sisters, nurses and our many kind friends and benefactors who have so generously contributed over the years to our cause, were not proud of our great achievement.

But we have not yet arrived at our goal. To the future we must now look and the problem which confronts us, demands our attention, and likewise challenges us. It is the erection of a new nurses' school and residence which will complete our present long-range program and assure us of obtaining permanent accreditation for our School of Nursing. Your generous and wholehearted support in the past, therefore, encourages us to come to you again for assistance in order to provide adequate nursing service for the growing number of patients in our enlarged Benedictine Hospital."

History of School

A short history of the school was presented by Sister M. Callista, director of the school. "In reviewing the reports of the School of Nursing—one is amazed and astounded at the courage and foresight of our pioneering Sisters. Sister Aloysia, the foundress of our hospital and school of nursing visited Kingston in the late nineties, and was made aware of the need of an institution for the sick and the training of young women to care for the sick. In due time she received permission from her superior, Mother Walburga and Archbishop Corrigan, and two cottages on West Chestnut street were secured for the purpose of starting a sanitarium. In less than two years this was inadequate, and a general hospital was built at the present site and opened for occupancy in 1902. In 1904, Sister Aloysia obtained state approval for opening a Training School for Nurses, and the first class of four nurses was graduated in 1907. Our dear Miss Mary Hamburger was a member of this class. We had hoped that she would be our guest of honor today, but due to illness she is unable to attend. This first class took the State Board examinations and received the coveted registered nurse license to practice. Miss Blanchard, a graduate of Bellevue Hospital School of Nursing was the first director of our school. The classes in the early days were very small, and there was a frequent turnover of directors, some staying only a year or two. The Director or principal did much of the teaching herself in those early days, assisted by the doctors, who were most faithful with their lectures. Outstanding among them was Doctor Mary Gage Day, who was very much interested in the school, and was the chairman of the training school committee for many years. Her dynamic spirit and enthusiasm and her teaching ability were real assets to the school. Dr. Mark O'Meara, Drs. William and John O'Leary, and Dr. Downer were always ready in assisting with the classes.

Some of the things we like to remember and relate, that we find in the reports of the school by Dr. Mary Gage Day: "In 1908 there was a great need for a visiting nurse service to work with the drive against tuberculosis, Miss Anna O'Shea, one of our own graduates, became the first visiting nurse of Ulster county. She was also in charge of the first outdoor camp for children until the first Tuberculosis Hospital was built." Miss Mary Hamburger was in charge of this hospital for ten years. We also find that in 1908 during the small pox epidemic, Miss Hamburger took charge of the nursing, and personally took care of the victims of that dread disease, at one of the public schools that was converted into an emergency isolation hospital.

Active in Public Health

Lillian Hagelweide and Elizabeth Kraus followed as nurses in charge of the nursing at the Ulster County Tuberculosis hospital. Our graduates have been very active in public health from the beginning of that service until the present time. In the teaching, our dear Sister Ursula of happy memory was outstanding as an instructor, and as you know our present faculty is composed of almost all graduates of our school. We have had several administrators of hospitals, of whom Sister Berenice is not the least by far. She is to be truly commended on the very fine work that she had done. Our present new building will be a memorial to her for many years to come. Without her inspiration and encouragement the school could not have progressed to its present standing.

All of our graduates that are active, are filling a real need in the communities in which they are serving, be it in public health, industry, general duty, private duty. They are also teaching, head nursing, and supervising.

Our institution has been blessed with wise and competent presidents on our Board of Managers throughout the years. The first was Doctor Burtsell, who was followed by Monsignor Hickey, and later Monsignor Scully, Monsignor Stanley, and our dear Monsignor Drury whose wise counsels and wisdom have been a great help in carrying on the school program.

The Ladies' Auxiliary and the Alumnae Association have always had the students interest very much at heart.

In closing may I say "Thank you and may God reward" all of our faculty members, nurses, doctors, and the Reverend clergy of Mt. St. Alphonsus, who have given so much to enhance our curriculum. And may Our Lady of Victories, the Patroness of our school, bless this our Golden Jubilee, which occurs in her own Marian Year, and assist us to produce good students and nurses, who will be Marylike and Christlike in serving the sick."

Erection of New Nurses' School Plan In Present Program

The Benedictine Hospital Alumnae Association sponsored a dinner Sunday afternoon at the Governor Clinton Hotel to celebrate the 50th anniversary of the School of Nursing. Miss Ida M. Zanni, president of the alumnae, welcomed the group and introduced Dr. Edward F. Shea, a member of the teaching staff of the school, who presided as master of ceremonies.

The Invocation was given by the Rev. Adam Otterbein C.Ss.R. Among the guests who greeted the group and expressed congratulations on this Golden Jubilee were Mrs. Guy Valeo, president of the Ladies' Auxiliary; Dr. William S. Bush, chief of staff; the Right Rev. Martin J. Drury, chairman of the Executive Committee; and the Very Rev. Joseph Comyns, rector of Mount Saint Alphonsus, Esopus.

Sister M. Berenice, superintendent of the hospital, in her address to the group stated, "It is indeed a privilege for us today who have spent the greater portion of our lives in giving service to the people of Kingston and all Ulster county to recall and thank Almighty God for having given our devoted and courageous Sister Aloysius the vision and foresight to have selected the beautiful and spacious site on which stands today the Benedictine Hospital and first nurses' residence erected in 1920.

We have come a long way along the road to proper importance and stature for the Benedictine Hospital and we would be falsely modest today if we our president, Rt. Rev. Monsignor Drury, doctors, sisters, nurses and our many kind friends and benefactors who have so generously contributed over the years to our cause, were not proud of our great achievement.

But we have not yet arrived at our goal. To the future we must now look and the problem which confronts us, demands our attention, and likewise challenges us. It is the erection of a new nurses' school and residence which will complete our present long-range program and assure us of obtaining permanent accreditation for our School of Nursing. Your generous and wholehearted support in the past, therefore, encourages us to come to you again for assistance in order to provide adequate nursing service for the growing number of patients in our enlarged Benedictine Hospital."

History of School

A short history of the school was presented by Sister M. Callista, director of the school. "In reviewing the reports of the School of Nursing—one is amazed and astounded at the courage and foresight of our pioneering Sisters. Sister Aloysia, the foundress of our hospital and school of nursing visited Kingston in the late nineties, and was made aware of the need of an institution for the sick and the training of young women to care for the sick. In due time she received permission from her superior, Mother Walburga and Archbishop Corrigan, and two cottages on West Chestnut street were secured for the purpose of starting a sanitarium. In less than two years this was inadequate, and a general hospital was built at the present site and opened for occupancy in 1902. In 1904, Sister Aloysia obtained state approval for opening a Training School for Nurses, and the first class of four nurses was graduated in 1907. Our dear Miss Mary Hamburger was a member of this class. We had hoped that she would be our guest of honor today, but due to illness she is unable to attend. This first class took the State Board examinations and received the coveted registered nurse license to practice. Miss Blanchard, a graduate of Bellevue Hospital School of Nursing was the first director of our school. The classes in the early days were very small, and there was a frequent turnover of directors, some staying only a year or two. The Director or principal did much of the teaching herself in those early days, assisted by the doctors, who were most faithful with their lectures. Outstanding among them was Doctor Mary Gage Day, who was very much interested in the school, and was the chairman of the training school committee for many years. Her dynamic spirit and enthusiasm and her teaching ability were real assets to the school. Dr. Mark O'Meara, Drs. William and John O'Leary, and Dr. Downer were always ready in assisting with the classes.

Some of the things we like to remember and relate, that we find in the reports of the school by Dr. Mary Gage Day: "In 1908 there was a great need for a visiting nurse service to work with the drive against tuberculosis, Miss Anna O'Shea, one of our own graduates, became the first visiting nurse of Ulster county. She was also in charge of the first outdoor camp for children until the first Tuberculosis Hospital was built." Miss Mary Hamburger was in charge of this hospital for ten years. We also find that in 1908 during the small pox epidemic, Miss Hamburger took charge of the nursing, and personally took care of the victims of that dread disease, at one of the public schools that was converted into an emergency isolation hospital.

Active in Public Health

Lillian Hagelweide and Elizabeth Kraus followed as nurses in charge of the nursing at the Ulster County Tuberculosis hospital. Our graduates have been very active in public health from the beginning of that service until the present time. In the teaching, our dear Sister Ursula of happy memory was outstanding as an instructor, and as you know our present faculty is composed of almost all graduates of our school. We have had several administrators of hospitals, of whom Sister Berenice is not the least by far. She is to be truly commended on the very fine work that she had done. Our present new building will be a memorial to her for many years to come. Without her inspiration and encouragement the school could not have progressed to its present standing.

All of our graduates that are active, are filling a real need in the communities in which they are serving, be it in public health, industry, general duty, private duty. They are also teaching, head nursing, and supervising.

Our institution has been blessed with wise and competent presidents on our Board of Managers throughout the years. The first was Doctor Burtsell, who was followed by Monsignor Hickey, and later Monsignor Scully, Monsignor Stanley, and our dear Monsignor Drury whose wise counsels and wisdom have been a great help in carrying on the school program.

The Ladies' Auxiliary and the Alumnae Association have always had the students interest very much at heart.

In closing may I say "Thank you and may God reward" all of our faculty members, nurses, doctors, and the Reverend clergy of Mt. St. Alphonsus, who have given so much to enhance our curriculum. And may Our Lady of Victories, the Patroness of our school, bless this our Golden Jubilee, which occurs in her own Marian Year, and assist us to produce good students and nurses, who will be Marylike and Christlike in serving the sick."

Marlborough Stays Unbeaten Tripping Kerhonkson, 7 to 3

Clair Bee Seen Headed for Toledo

Toledo, Ohio, May 26 (AP)—The Toledo Times said this morning Clair Bee, coach of the Baltimore Bullets in the National Basketball Assn., is the leading candidate for the job of head coach at Toledo University.

The Times said the 54-year-old former Long Island University coach and author of many books on basketball play, was in Toledo Monday night for an interview with the T.U. Board of Athletic Control and visited the school again yesterday.

Tommy Holmes, manager of Elmira, in the Eastern League, is well-remembered by fans in that loop. He was the batting champ with Binghamton in 1938. His average was .368.

Marlborough Central, undefeated leader of the Ulster County Athletic League, continued to roll yesterday with a 7-3 victory over Kerhonkson.

George Mackey pitched six scoreless innings before Kerhonkson pushed three runs across in the seventh. He didn't issue a pass and fanned nine.

Coach Jack Kroh's combined timely hits with Kerhonkson outfield lapse to run up a 7-0 lead in the first two innings. But Bob Barley held them in check the rest of the way.

Brooks, Marlborough third sacker, got his club started on the road to victory with a three-run homer in the first. John Mustion had a double and single for the losers.

The setback squared Kerhonkson's record at 5 and 5. They meet Saugerties High Friday.

Chisox Halt Cleveland Streak; Giants Rough Up Pirates, 21-4

By BEN PHLEGAR
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

The Cleveland Indians might have known that when their winning streak was broken the villians would be the Chicago White Sox.

The Indians put an 11-game string on the line in Chicago last night and the White Sox promptly snapped it with a 4-2 decision. If the streak had been the other way around, Cleveland would have won.

That's the way these perennial runners-up in the American League have been going at each other regularly during the past three seasons in one of the most evenly matched rivalries in the majors. Dating back through 1951 the series stands 37-34 in favor of the Indians.

Chicago now has won three of five from the first place Indians this season, Cleveland leads the league by a game and a half over the Sox with the third place New York Yankees uncomfortably close, only two games out.

Yanks Close Gap

The Yanks took advantage of the Indians' misfortune last night to close the gap. They beat Washington 9-3. Detroit shaded Baltimore 5-4 in 12 innings. Boston left Philadelphia in last place all alone by winning 3-2.

In the National League the Milwaukee Braves won their eighth in a row, 3-1 over Cincinnati. The New York Giants slammed 22 hits in beating Pittsburgh 21-4. St. Louis defeated the Chicago Cubs 9-4. The Brooklyn Dodger management let a mid-morning shower persuade them to call off a scheduled day game with Philadelphia.

Ford Goes Distance

Whitey Ford went the distance for the first time this season as the Yankees ruined Bucky Harris night in Washington with a 17 hit assault. The victory was Ford's sixth of his career over the Senators who have never beaten him.

Detroit's long ball attack ruined Baltimor's hopes of breaking out of a losing streak which now runs to five games. Trailing 3-2 the Tigers tied the game in the last of the ninth on a home run by Jim Delsing, the Orioles scored in the 11th only to have Johnny Pesky get his first hit of the season, a pinch hit homer, in the last of the 11th. In the 12th Al Kaline singled and Bill Tuttle drove him home with a triple.

Catcher Sammy White turned from goat to star with a ninth inning home run for Boston over Philadelphia. White had hit into three double plays earlier in the game.

Two home runs sewed up Milwaukee's victory at Cincinnati. Joe Adcock doubled in the fifth and Hank Aaron homered. Then pitcher Warren Spahn followed with a home run. The triumph gave Spahn a 5-3 record.

New York's assault on the hapless Pirates was the second heaviest of the young season, topped only by Chicago's 23-13 victory over St. Louis late in April. The Giants scored 11 runs in the eighth inning, tops in either league so far. In the seventh they had scored five as Whitey Lockman hit a grand slam home run.

The Cardinals' victory over the Cubs was a runaway for rookie Wally Moon who stole four bases. The modern National League record of five was set 50 years ago this week by Dan McGann of the Giants.

Yesterday's Stars

(By The Associated Press)

Batting — Whitey Lockman, New York Giants, hit his first grand slam home run plus three singles as New York mauled Pittsburgh 21-4.

Pitching—Warren Spahn, Milwaukee Braves, gave up six hits and hit a home run in winning his fifth game, 3-1 over Cincinnati.

Bailey Has 280 Single In Major

John Bailey fired a 280 game on alleys 7 and 8 last night as the 1954-55 Ferraro Major League staged a special 4-game preview, rolling across eight alleys.

Bailey's big blast came in the fourth game. He started with a strike, spared in the second frame, then struck out the rest of the way. His four-game total of 860 was runnerup to Randy Kelder's 902, as he rolled 204-195-181-280.

Kelder, strangely off key on alleys 7 and 8 where he hit 168, assaulted the three other pairs for 244, 257 and 233.

Buster Ferraro rapped 237-233-837, a figure tied by his brother, John, who had 244-201-221-837.

Charlie Manfro posted 221-211-211-834; John Schatzel 259-213-813; Harold Broskie 204-211-207-804; George Shufeldt 246-803; Joe Misasi 214-219-795; Whitey Crispell 211-207-221-784.

Whitey Crispell's wrecking crew fired a four-game aggregate of 3885 with a high of 1006. John Bailey's squad rolled high game of 1087 and the Manfros fired 1063.

See Power Loss Curbed By Gasoline Discovery

New Fuel Additive Neutralizes Combustion Deposits in Auto Engines

A way to release untouched latent power locked in almost every automobile engine has been announced by research engineers for the Shell Oil Company.

The discovery is a fuel additive blended into Shell Premium Gasoline and sold under the trademark TCP. Describing its action, Shell explains that TCP neutralizes the troublesome deposits in combustion chambers and on spark plugs, releasing up to 15% more power without mechanical aid.

Combined with Shell's Premium Gasoline, TCP additive has worked so quickly in tests that company engineers say cars actually have the "feel" of an engine tune-up before they've gone through a second tankful.

Two-Way Loss

Lead and carbon deposits constantly accumulating in an automobile engine waste power two ways, the Shell announcement points out. TCP additive was developed to overcome them.

They form hot spots in combustion chambers when power is needed most—for quick acceleration and on hills. This sets off the gasoline-air mixture prematurely—before the piston reaches its proper firing position. Such "pre-ignition," engineers say, creates power that works against the engine.

Similar deposits also form on spark plugs, short-circuiting them to cause misfiring. This wastes fuel and power.

Twin Curbs

Shell's announcement cites two ways in which the new additive curbs the power loss: "TCP fireproofs the deposits in combustion chambers to prevent pre-ignition. In addition, TCP renders these same deposits non-conductive on spark plugs. This stops short-circuiting and spark plugs fire on time."

Calls for Constant Use

In order to maintain the power gain, Shell engineers recommend continuous use of Shell Premium Gasoline with TCP. "The deposits are constantly accumulating and must be constantly neutralized," they say.

Shell Premium Gasoline with TCP is available at all Shell Dealer service stations.

Chisox Halt Cleveland Streak; Giants Rough Up Pirates, 21-4

By BEN PHLEGAR
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

The Cleveland Indians might have known that when their winning streak was broken the villians would be the Chicago White Sox.

The Indians put an 11-game string on the line in Chicago last night and the White Sox promptly snapped it with a 4-2 decision. If the streak had been the other way around, Cleveland would have won.

That's the way these perennial runners-up in the American League have been going at each other regularly during the past three seasons in one of the most evenly matched rivalries in the majors. Dating back through 1951 the series stands 37-34 in favor of the Indians.

Chicago now has won three of five from the first place Indians this season. Cleveland leads the league by a game and a half over the Sox with the third place New York Yankees uncomfortably close, only two games out.

Yanks Close Gap

The Yanks took advantage of the Indians' misfortune last night to close the gap. They beat Washington 9-3. Detroit shaded Baltimore 5-4 in 12 innings. Boston left Philadelphia in last place all alone by winning 3-2.

In the National League the Milwaukee Braves won their eighth in a row, 3-1 over Cincinnati. The New York Giants slammed 22 hits in beating Pittsburgh 21-4. St. Louis defeated the Chicago Cubs 9-4. The Brooklyn Dodger management let a mid-morning shower persuade them to call off a scheduled day game with Philadelphia.

Ford Goes Distance

Whitey Ford went the distance for the first time this season as the Yankees ruined Bucky Harris night in Washington with a 17 hit assault. The victory was Ford's sixth of his career over the Senators who have never beaten him.

Detroit's long ball attack ruined Baltimor's hopes of breaking out of a losing streak which now runs to five games. Trailing 3-2 the Tigers tied the game in the last of the ninth on a home run by Jim Delsing, the Orioles scored in the 11th only to have Johnny Pesky get his first hit of the season, a pinch hit homer, in the last of the 11th. In the 12th Al Kaline singled and Bill Tuttle drove him home with a triple.

Catcher Sammy White turned from goat to star with a ninth inning home run for Boston over Philadelphia. White had hit into three double plays earlier in the game.

Two home runs sewed up Milwaukee's victory at Cincinnati. Joe Adcock doubled in the fifth and Hank Aaron homered. Then pitcher Warren Spahn followed with a home run. The triumph gave Spahn a 5-3 record.

New York's assault on the hapless Pirates was the second heaviest of the young season, topped only by Chicago's 23-13 victory over St. Louis late in April. The Giants scored 11 runs in the eighth inning, tops in either league so far. In the seventh they had scored five as Whitey Lockman hit a grand slam home run.

The Cardinals' victory over the Cubs was a runaway for rookie Wally Moon who stole four bases. The modern National League record of five was set 50 years ago this week by Dan McGann of the Giants.

Yesterday's Stars

(By The Associated Press)

Batting — Whitey Lockman, New York Giants, hit his first grand slam home run plus three singles as New York mauled Pittsburgh 21-4.

Pitching—Warren Spahn, Milwaukee Braves, gave up six hits and hit a home run in winning his fifth game, 3-1 over Cincinnati.

Bailey Has 280 Single In Major

John Bailey fired a 280 game on alleys 7 and 8 last night as the 1954-55 Ferraro Major League staged a special 4-game preview, rolling across eight alleys.

Bailey's big blast came in the fourth game. He started with a strike, spared in the second frame, then struck out the rest of the way. His four-game total of 860 was runnerup to Randy Kelder's 902, as he rolled 204-195-181-280.

Kelder, strangely off key on alleys 7 and 8 where he hit 168, assaulted the three other pairs for 244, 257 and 233.

Buster Ferraro rapped 237-233-837, a figure tied by his brother, John, who had 244-201-221-837.

Charlie Manfro posted 221-211-211-834; John Schatzel 259-213-813; Harold Broskie 204-211-207-804; George Shufeldt 246-803; Joe Misasi 214-219-795; Whitey Crispell 211-207-221-784.

Whitey Crispell's wrecking crew fired a four-game aggregate of 3885 with a high of 1006. John Bailey's squad rolled high game of 1087 and the Manfros fired 1063.

See Power Loss Curbed By Gasoline Discovery

New Fuel Additive Neutralizes Combustion Deposits in Auto Engines

A way to release untouched latent power locked in almost every automobile engine has been announced by research engineers for the Shell Oil Company.

The discovery is a fuel additive blended into Shell Premium Gasoline and sold under the trademark TCP. Describing its action, Shell explains that TCP neutralizes the troublesome deposits in combustion chambers and on spark plugs, releasing up to 15% more power without mechanical aid.

Combined with Shell's Premium Gasoline, TCP additive has worked so quickly in tests that company engineers say cars actually have the "feel" of an engine tune-up before they've gone through a second tankful.

Two-Way Loss

Lead and carbon deposits constantly accumulating in an automobile engine waste power two ways, the Shell announcement points out. TCP additive was developed to overcome them.

They form hot spots in combustion chambers when power is needed most—for quick acceleration and on hills. This sets off the gasoline-air mixture prematurely—before the piston reaches its proper firing position. Such "pre-ignition," engineers say, creates power that works against the engine.

Similar deposits also form on spark plugs, short-circuiting them to cause misfiring. This wastes fuel and power.

Twin Curbs

Shell's announcement cites two ways in which the new additive curbs the power loss: "TCP fireproofs the deposits in combustion chambers to prevent pre-ignition. In addition, TCP renders these same deposits non-conductive on spark plugs. This stops short-circuiting and spark plugs fire on time."

Calls for Constant Use

In order to maintain the power gain, Shell engineers recommend continuous use of Shell Premium Gasoline with TCP. "The deposits are constantly accumulating and must be constantly neutralized," they say.

Shell Premium Gasoline with TCP is available at all Shell Dealer service stations.

Checks Onteora 5-0, With Lone Single by Warnes

Fans 11 Batters, Pounds Three Hits

Renni Giannuzzi was a one-man gang as the KHS Jayvees made it two straight over Onteora Central, 5-0, Monday at municipal stadium.

Giannuzzi allowed only one hit—a clean single by Warnes in the hole between second and short. He walked only one batter and struck out 11.

Onteora had only two base runners—Warnes with a single and walk—but he did not advance beyond first base.

Raps Three Hits

At bat, Giannuzzi behaved in true No. 5 style with three solid singles for a "3 for 3" performance against Ollie Crawford. The Onteora flinger was touched for six hits, including other singles by Eric Blackwell, Bob Weishaupt and Alo Saluste. Crawford walked two and fanned six.

The victory was the fourth in five starts for Coach Al Gruner's Jayvees. They make their next start next Tuesday against Catskill.

GIVING SLACK LINE IN SPIN-FISHING

WHEN A GAME FISH TAKES A MINNOW OR OTHER BAIT FISH, GIVE HIM SLACK LINE SO HE FEELS NO RESISTANCE IN MOVING AWAY BEFORE HE TURNS BAIT TO SWALLOW IT. THE PICKUP FINGER IS USUALLY CLOSED (ENGAGING LINE) WHEN THE BAIT IS TAKEN, SO YOU MUST PULL OFF SLACK LINE QUICKLY BY HAND, OR FLIP PICKUP OPEN SO LINE SPIRALS OUT. CLOSE PICKUP AGAIN TO STRIKE AFTER THE FISH STOPS.

Checks Onteora 5-0, With Lone Single by Warnes

Fans 11 Batters, Pounds Three Hits

Renni Giannuzzi was a one-man gang as the KHS Jayvees made it two straight over Onteora Central, 5-0, Monday at municipal stadium.

Giannuzzi allowed only one hit—a clean single by Warnes in the hole between second and short. He walked only one batter and struck out 11.

Onteora had only two base runners—Warnes with a single and walk—but he did not advance beyond first base.

Raps Three Hits

At bat, Giannuzzi behaved in true No. 5 style with three solid singles for a "3 for 3" performance against Ollie Crawford. The Onteora flinger was touched for six hits, including other singles by Eric Blackwell, Bob Weishaupt and Alo Saluste. Crawford walked two and fanned six.

The victory was the fourth in five starts for Coach Al Gruner's Jayvees. They make their next start next Tuesday against Catskill.

Shokan

Shokan, May 26—Mrs. Stanley Krum of Maybrook and her daughter, Mrs. Orie Hinckley of Palentown, were callers in the hub of the reservoir country Saturday. Mrs. Krum is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Barringer who resided in the Samsonville area. Mrs. Hinckley and her husband are proprietors of Catskill Mountain Bungalows in northern Rochester.

Occasional showers put a damper on Sunday afternoon travel over the Onteora Trail and the reservoir roads. Next weekend will see the first big influx of city people to the mountains.

Andrew Holm of New York is spending some time at his Acorn Hill place, the former Ben Dudrey farm.

Orange county residents here Sunday included Mr. and Mrs. Howard Nott of New Windsor and Mr. and Mrs. John E. Motland of Garden street, Newburgh. Nott is a building contractor and Motland is employed as a postal clerk.

The Rev. H. Kishpaugh, new pastor of the Olive Bridge Methodist Church, was in Shokan Saturday. Dominie Kishpaugh has for a hobby the collecting of old phonographs and records together with catalogues and other data on these subjects.

Tuesday, June 1, marks the 25th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Martin J. Gulnac. Married at Catskill, the couple resided at Ashokan before moving here two years ago. They have three children . . . A birthday falling Wednesday, May 26, is that of Mrs. James Carpenter, Richmond Hill matron and a summer resident of Shokan 15 years. The former Anna L. Loos was born at Inwood, L. I., and attended Lawrence High School there. The Carpenters have four children.

Lester Elmendorf, Kingston War 1 veteran and real estate man, was a caller here Sunday. Lester comes of old Olive stock, his mother having been one of the South Olive Winchell clan.

Judge Catherine Carlson on Saturday night attended a banquet of the county bar association at the Twaalfskill Club in Kingston.

Old Friends

Newport News, Va. (AP)—Paul Rice, an oil company employe, leaped from side of a commandeered truck and brought a runaway horse to rein after a wild chase through the city streets. Asked about his confident way with horses Rice said: "I used to know a lot of them when I lived in Tennessee."

JACOBY ON BRIDGE

Opening Bid Comes Highly Regarded

By OSWALD JACOBY
Written for NEA Service

The opening bid of two no-trump usually shows 22 to 24 points. In today's hand South bid two no-trump with only 21 points. Nevertheless the opening bid is highly recommended.

Whenever your hand is otherwise suitable for no-trump purposes, you are justified in counting about one point extra for a strong five-card suit. In today's hand, the spade suit was so strong that South could surely count on his fifth spade to provide a trick. It was easily worth one extra point.

When the hand was played in a recent tournament, many of the players who had the South hand opened with only one spade. Several of them played the hand right there, since everybody passed the bid of one spade. When, however, South opened with two no-trump, North had no difficulty in responding.

At one table the result was quite unexpected. West opened the deuce of spades, declarer's strongest suit. A heart or a club opening lead would have given declarer much trouble.

South won the first trick, and lost the diamond finesse to East's king. East returned the queen of hearts, and South took the ace at once. South now proceeded to run the rest of the spades and diamonds, discarding the low club from his hand on dummy's last diamond.

East could save only three cards, and had to decide whether to save two hearts and one club or one heart and two clubs. Perhaps he should have guessed right, but it wasn't an easy decision to make. He actually saved only one heart, whereupon a heart lead from dummy dropped the jack and king together, thus establishing declarer's last heart as his eleventh trick.

Why We Say--

"SEEING RED"

When you are seeing red, you are supposed to be as angry as a bull at a bull fight where the matador is infuriating him with a red cloth. However, psychologists say that most animals are nearly color blind. Undoubtedly what excites the bull is the waving and not the color of the cloth.

Question and Answer

London (AP)—The London Chamber of Commerce says it was called on to answer these among other queries last year: Who makes metal crossbows and bolts? Did the Cutty Sark ever call at Bangkok? Where in Hongkong can Chinese sacred lilies be obtained? Where can we buy whales' teeth? What is the name given to collectors of matchbox labels? They're called philuminists.

President Permits Release of Worker For C-D Activities

The release of federal employes for duties with Civil Defense units during the nation-wide test June 14 and 15 was cited today by Ulster-Kingston Civil Defense officials as an example for private employers to follow.

President Dwight D. Eisenhower, under the date of April 30, directed each department and agency of the executive branch of government, both at national and field level, to take part in the exercise, to cooperate fully with federal, state and local civil defense authorities, and "to the extent feasible under the terms of Executive Order, dated April 22, 1954, to authorize the release of federal employes who are enrolled in local civil defense organizations to perform such civil duties as are assigned during this exercise."

The order recognized that "the task of civil defense is vital to our national life," and that "it demands preparedness that can do more than limit the damage of a war-time disaster. It means developing a preparedness, a vigilance so impressive as to deter aggression itself. This awareness must touch every community, every citizen of our land."

Ice Retreat Slowed

West Glacier, Mont. (AP)—M. E. Beatty, Glacier National Park chief naturalist, says increased precipitation, despite warmer weather, has slowed the retreat of the park's 60 glaciers. During the 1940s end of the glaciers was predicted before the year 2,000. In 1900, Sperry, largest of the park glaciers, had an area of 840 acres. By 1950 it was down to 300 acres.

Shokan

Shokan, May 26—Mrs. Stanley Krum of Maybrook and her daughter, Mrs. Orie Hinckley of Palentown, were callers in the hub of the reservoir country Saturday. Mrs. Krum is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Barringer who resided in the Samsonville area. Mrs. Hinckley and her husband are proprietors of Catskill Mountain Bungalows in northern Rochester.

Occasional showers put a damper on Sunday afternoon travel over the Onteora Trail and the reservoir roads. Next weekend will see the first big influx of city people to the mountains.

Andrew Holm of New York is spending some time at his Acorn Hill place, the former Ben Dudrey farm.

Orange county residents here Sunday included Mr. and Mrs. Howard Nott of New Windsor and Mr. and Mrs. John E. Motland of Garden street, Newburgh. Nott is a building contractor and Motland is employed as a postal clerk.

The Rev. H. Kishpaugh, new pastor of the Olive Bridge Methodist Church, was in Shokan Saturday. Dominie Kishpaugh has for a hobby the collecting of old phonographs and records together with catalogues and other data on these subjects.

Tuesday, June 1, marks the 25th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Martin J. Gulnac. Married at Catskill, the couple resided at Ashokan before moving here two years ago. They have three children . . . A birthday falling Wednesday, May 26, is that of Mrs. James Carpenter, Richmond Hill matron and a summer resident of Shokan 15 years. The former Anna L. Loos was born at Inwood, L. I., and attended Lawrence High School there. The Carpenters have four children.

Lester Elmendorf, Kingston War 1 veteran and real estate man, was a caller here Sunday. Lester comes of old Olive stock, his mother having been one of the South Olive Winchell clan.

Judge Catherine Carlson on Saturday night attended a banquet of the county bar association at the Twaalfskill Club in Kingston.

Old Friends

Newport News, Va. (AP) — Paul Rice, an oil company employe, leaped from side of a commandeered truck and brought a runaway horse to rein after a wild chase through the city streets. Asked about his confident way with horses Rice said: "I used to know a lot of them when I lived in Tennessee."

JACOBY ON BRIDGE

Opening Bid Comes Highly Regarded

By OSWALD JACOBY
Written for NEA Service

The opening bid of two no-trump usually shows 22 to 24 points. In today's hand South bid two no-trump with only 21 points. Nevertheless the opening bid is highly recommended.

Whenever your hand is otherwise suitable for no-trump purposes, you are justified in counting about one point extra for a strong five-card suit. In today's hand, the spade suit was so strong that South could surely count on his fifth spade to provide a trick. It was easily worth one extra point.

When the hand was played in a recent tournament, many of the players who had the South hand opened with only one spade. Several of them played the hand right there, since everybody passed the bid of one spade. When, however, South opened with two no-trump, North had no difficulty in responding.

At one table the result was quite unexpected. West opened the deuce of spades, declarer's strongest suit. A heart or a club opening lead would have given declarer much trouble.

South won the first trick, and lost the diamond finesse to East's king. East returned the queen of hearts, and South took the ace at once. South now proceeded to run the rest of the spades and diamonds, discarding the low club from his hand on dummy's last diamond.

East could save only three cards, and had to decide whether to save two hearts and one club or one heart and two clubs. Perhaps he should have guessed right, but it wasn't an easy decision to make. He actually saved only one heart, whereupon a heart lead from dummy dropped the jack and king together, thus establishing declarer's last heart as his eleventh trick.

Why We Say--

"SEEING RED"

When you are seeing red, you are supposed to be as angry as a bull at a bull fight where the matador is infuriating him with a red cloth. However, psychologists say that most animals are nearly color blind. Undoubtedly what excites the bull is the waving and not the color of the cloth.

Question and Answer

London (AP)—The London Chamber of Commerce says it was called on to answer these among other queries last year: Who makes metal crossbows and bolts? Did the Cutty Sark ever call at Bangkok? Where in Hongkong can Chinese sacred lilies be obtained? Where can we buy whales' teeth? What is the name given to collectors of matchbox labels? They're called philuministes.

President Permits Release of Worker For C-D Activities

The release of federal employes for duties with Civil Defense units during the nation-wide test June 14 and 15 was cited today by Ulster-Kingston Civil Defense officials as an example for private employers to follow.

President Dwight D. Eisenhower, under the date of April 30, directed each department and agency of the executive branch of government, both at national and field level, to take part in the exercise, to cooperate fully with federal, state and local civil defense authorities, and "to the extent feasible under the terms of Executive Order, dated April 22, 1954, to authorize the release of federal employes who are enrolled in local civil defense organizations to perform such civil duties as are assigned during this exercise."

The order recognized that "the task of civil defense is vital to our national life," and that "it demands preparedness that can do more than limit the damage of a war-time disaster. It means developing a preparedness, a vigilance so impressive as to deter aggression itself. This awareness must touch every community, every citizen of our land."

Ice Retreat Slowed

West Glacier, Mont. (AP)—M. E. Beatty, Glacier National Park chief naturalist, says increased precipitation, despite warmer weather, has slowed the retreat of the park's 60 glaciers. During the 1940s end of the glaciers was predicted before the year 2,000. In 1900, Sperry, largest of the park glaciers, had an area of 840 acres. By 1950 it was down to 300 acres.

Blackout Announced

New York, May 26 (AP)—New York's movie industry today announced plans for a Broadway "blackout" next Monday night in protest of a proposed New York city tax on amusement. An industry spokesman said all the city's 570 film houses would turn off their marquee lights the rest of the evening at 9 p. m. next Monday. In addition, he said, legitimate theatres and operators of the huge, spectacular electric signs in the world-renowned Broadway area will join in the illumination shut-off. Broadway thus will be "completely eclipsed," it was added.

Financial and Commercial

New York, May 26 (AP) — Aircrafts and steels paced a slightly higher stock market today. Prices were at their best in the early afternoon.

The higher swing went to around 2 points in favored areas. Losses were below a point.

Trading was not very robust but the rate still was maintained at around two million shares for the day. There were 2,050,000 shares traded yesterday in a falling market.

Also higher with the steels and aircrafts were the rubbers, and motors. The railroads were irregularly lower, farm implements were off, and there was quite a mixture of gains and losses in the coppers, chemicals, radio-televisions, and the utilities.

Ship's Blaze Toll

rier Wasp, April 26, 1952, in mid-Atlantic.

Last October 37 died and 39 were injured in an explosion and fire aboard the carrier Leyte while she was tied up at Boston for repairs.

The Bennington with a crew of 2,800 was engaged in what the Navy called routine training when the unexplained fire occurred.

Five 'Copters Busy

Associated Press Photographer Peter J. Carroll who flew from Boston to take pictures of the Bennington coming into port said he saw five helicopters making trip after trip, removing injured and rushing them to a hospital in Newport.

"We made six passes at 200 feet over the Bennington," said Carroll, "as she steamed up Narragansett Bay at about 6-8 knots, past Prudence Island. . . .

"The Bennington's planes, their wings folded, were stacked up on the fantail (rear portion of the deck) as the helicopters took over the whole deck.

"There was no smoke or fire visible when we flew over, but steam and water were coming from the starboard (right) side of the ship, probably from where they were fighting the fire."

The 32,000-ton Essex class carrier, which saw action in World War 2, was due at this naval air station shortly after noon (EDT).

Helicopters already had removed some of the more seriously injured and landed them on a street near the naval hospital in nearby Newport.

The Bennington reported earlier the fire was under control.

The secretary of the navy was en route to Quonset to board the ship as soon as she arrived.

Involved Gasoline

Initial reports said the fire involved high octane gas.

Twelve helicopter flights with seriously injured navy personnel landed in a private field alongside the Newport Naval Hospital by 11:30 a. m.

The helicopters were continuing to arrive, the navy medical personnel on the field were rushing under the whirling blades of the helicopters to take out the injured men as rapidly as possible.

A Newport Daily News reporter on the scene saw one patient, with head and arm badly burned, lifted and rushed in a naval hospital ambulance to the hospital 150 yards away.

Two entire wards at the hospital were cleared to receive the injured.

Both the Newport, R. I., hospital and the Truesdale Hospital at Fall River, Mass., offered their services and blood supplies.

A small contingent of anxious relatives gathered at the Quonset station as the Bennington neared shore. Officials assembled them all in the base theatre and served them sandwiches and coffee.

30 More Carpenters Off on Thruway

Effects of the cement industry strike in the Hudson valley are gradually being felt by other construction workers and on Tuesday an additional 30 carpenters employed on the thruway in Greene and Ulster counties were laid og due to lack of cement. The men are members of Hudson Valley District Council of Carpenters.

George E. Yerry, Jr., today confirmed the report and stated that most of the men were from Greene county although a few were from Ulster county. The men were employed on the Savin Construction Company contract.

To date approximately 250 carpenters in the area served by the Hudson Valley District Council have been laid og. Work on the thruway south of Kingston which involves use of concrete has practically been shut-down and there is no immediate prospect of settlement of the digerences between the cement companies and the men.

$250 Canoe Is Reported Stolen

A 17-foot aluminum canoe valued at $250 was stolen from the top of a car at Rainbow Lodge, Mt. Tremper, sometime after 3 a. m. Sunday, it was reported today by Cpl. Ray Dunn of Phoenicia.

Richard Kahil, proprietor of the lodge, told Dunn the canoe belonged to one of a group of canoe enthusiasts from the New York city-New Jersey area who came to shoot the Esopus creek rapids from Allaben to the Ashokan Reservoir.

The canoers come up frequently from the metropolitan area to try their skill and endurance in the swift, turbulent waters of the Esopus. Between 10 and 15 canoes were at Rainbow Lodge when the theft was discovered. Cpl. Dunn is investigating.

Small GOP Group To Attend Dinner

Ulster county Republicans will not be widely represented at the annual $100 per plate fund-raising dinner at The Waldorf-Astoria Hotel tonight. Reservations for the dinner, at which Governor Thomas E. Dewey will be a speaker, were reported today to have been either "six or seven."

In 1952 Ulster county had a delegation of 86 at the dinner and last year there were 74 Ulster county Republicans attending. Attorney John F. Larkin was in charge of reservations for the dinner this year.

Home Bureau

Tabasco Unit

Mrs. Robert Greer gave a report on achievement day held in Ellenville May 14 at a meeting May 20 of the Tabasco Home Bureau.

Fifteen members were reported at the session at which Mrs. Harold Schwab presided in place of Mrs. Oliver Gray, who is away.

The group decided not to hold its annual picnic, but to go out to dinner June 17.

Leaders were chosen for the 1954-55 projects. The subjects include lamps and lampshades, landscaping gardens, family life, and color and design in the home.

Mrs. George Schwab gave a lesson on recipe filing and Mrs. Donald Wise and Mrs. William Lucas gave a talk and demonstration on how to relax.

No meeting will be held in June because of the dinner on the meeting date. All planning to attend the dinner are asked to contact Mrs. Roy Wyncoop before June 8.

Lake Katrine Unit

The next regular meeting of the Lake Katrine Home Bureau will be held June 2 at the home of Mrs. Evelyn Ewing, 40 Kiersted avenue. Members are requested to bring covered dishes for a picnic.

John Moehle Will Speak to Teachers

John H. Moehle, principal of Onteora Central School, will speak before the teachers' organization of the First Supervisory District of Ulster County Thursday night. The dinner will be held at the Flamingo Restaurant, Route 9W. Teachers of the First Supervisory District are under the supervision of District Superintendent Clarence Johnson of Saugerties.

Mr. Moehle recently spoke before the Margaretville Rotary Club and several P-TA organizations throughout the area. The title of his talk will be, Don't Take It too Seriously.

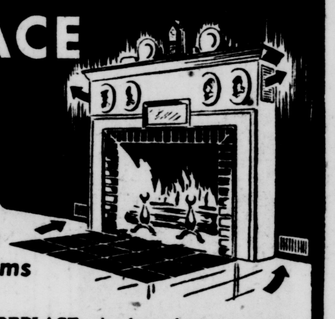
FIREPLACE
that Circulates Heat



For Homes, Camps and Basement Rooms
THE HEATILATOR FIREPLACE circulates heat to every corner of the room and adjoining rooms. Saves the heat that ordinary fireplaces waste up the chimney. The scientifically designed heating chamber of the Heatilator Fireplace is concealed in the masonry where it draws cool air from floor level, heats it, and returns it to the room.
Heatilator installation eliminates the usual causes of smoking. It saves fuel bills during cool weather. Puts no limit on mantel design. Adds but little to the cost of the finished fireplace.

Blackout Announced

New York, May 26 (AP)—New York's movie industry today announced plans for a Broadway "blackout" next Monday night in protest of a proposed New York city tax on amusement. An industry spokesman said all the city's 570 film houses would turn off their marquee lights the rest of the evening at 9 p. m. next Monday. In addition, he said, legitimate theatres and operators of the huge, spectacular electric signs in the world-renowned Broadway area will join in the illumination shut-off. Broadway thus will be "completely eclipsed," it was added.

New York, May 26 (AP) — Aircrafts and steels paced a slightly higher stock market today. Prices were at their best in the early afternoon.

The higher swing went to around 2 points in favored areas. Losses were below a point.

Trading was not very robust but the rate still was maintained at around two million shares for the day. There were 2,050,000 shares traded yesterday in a falling market.

Also higher with the steels and aircrafts were the rubbers, and motors. The railroads were irregularly lower, farm implements were off, and there was quite a mixture of gains and losses in the coppers, chemicals, radio-televisions, and the utilities.

It Comes Naturally

St. Louis (AP)—Lt. Col. F. T. Butler of nearby Scott Air Force Base won the attendance prize at a luncheon meeting—a half-hour sightseeing flight over St. Louis in a DC-7.

Ship's Blaze Toll

rier Wasp, April 26, 1952, in mid-Atlantic.

Last October 37 died and 39 were injured in an explosion and fire aboard the carrier Leyte while she was tied up at Boston for repairs.

The Bennington with a crew of 2,800 was engaged in what the Navy called routine training when the unexplained fire occurred.

Five 'Copters Busy

Associated Press Photographer Peter J. Carroll who flew from Boston to take pictures of the Bennington coming into port said he saw five helicopters making trip after trip, removing injured and rushing them to a hospital in Newport.

"We made six passes at 200 feet over the Bennington," said Carroll, "as she steamed up Narragansett Bay at about 6-8 knots, past Prudence Island. . . .

"The Bennington's planes, their wings folded, were stacked up on the fantail (rear portion of the deck) as the helicopters took over the whole deck.

"There was no smoke or fire visible when we flew over, but steam and water were coming from the starboard (right) side of the ship, probably from where they were fighting the fire."

The 32,000-ton Essex class carrier, which saw action in World War 2, was due at this naval air station shortly after noon (EDT).

Helicopters already had removed some of the more seriously injured and landed them on a street near the naval hospital in nearby Newport.

The Bennington reported earlier the fire was under control.

The secretary of the navy was en route to Quonset to board the ship as soon as she arrived.

Involved Gasoline

Initial reports said the fire involved high octane gas.

Twelve helicopter flights with seriously injured navy personnel landed in a private field alongside the Newport Naval Hospital by 11:30 a. m.

The helicopters were continuing to arrive, the navy medical personnel on the field were rushing under the whirling blades of the helicopters to take out the injured men as rapidly as possible.

A Newport Daily News reporter on the scene saw one patient, with head and arm badly burned, lifted and rushed in a naval hospital ambulance to the hospital 150 yards away.

Two entire wards at the hospital were cleared to receive the injured.

Both the Newport, R. I., hospital and the Truesdale Hospital at Fall River, Mass., offered their services and blood supplies.

A small contingent of anxious relatives gathered at the Quonset station as the Bennington neared shore. Officials assembled them all in the base theatre and served them sandwiches and coffee.

30 More Carpenters Off on Thruway

Effects of the cement industry strike in the Hudson valley are gradually being felt by other construction workers and on Tuesday an additional 30 carpenters employed on the thruway in Greene and Ulster counties were laid og due to lack of cement. The men are members of Hudson Valley District Council of Carpenters.

George E. Yerry, Jr., today confirmed the report and stated that most of the men were from Greene county although a few were from Ulster county. The men were employed on the Savin Construction Company contract.

To date approximately 250 carpenters in the area served by the Hudson Valley District Council have been laid og. Work on the thruway south of Kingston which involves use of concrete has practically been shut-down and there is no immediate prospect of settlement of the digerences between the cement companies and the men.

$250 Canoe Is Reported Stolen

A 17-foot aluminum canoe valued at $250 was stolen from the top of a car at Rainbow Lodge, Mt. Tremper, sometime after 3 a. m. Sunday, it was reported today by Cpl. Ray Dunn of Phoenicia.

Richard Kahil, proprietor of the lodge, told Dunn the canoe belonged to one of a group of canoe enthusiasts from the New York city-New Jersey area who came to shoot the Esopus creek rapids from Allaben to the Ashokan Reservoir.

The canoers come up frequently from the metropolitan area to try their skill and endurance in the swift, turbulent waters of the Esopus. Between 10 and 15 canoes were at Rainbow Lodge when the theft was discovered. Cpl. Dunn is investigating.

Small GOP Group To Attend Dinner

Ulster county Republicans will not be widely represented at the annual $100 per plate fund-raising dinner at The Waldorf-Astoria Hotel tonight. Reservations for the dinner, at which Governor Thomas E. Dewey will be a speaker, were reported today to have been either "six or seven."

In 1952 Ulster county had a delegation of 86 at the dinner and last year there were 74 Ulster county Republicans attending. Attorney John F. Larkin was in charge of reservations for the dinner this year.

Leaders were chosen for the 1954-55 projects. The subjects include lamps and lampshades, landscaping gardens, family life, and color and design in the home.

Mrs. George Schwab gave a lesson on recipe filing and Mrs. Donald Wise and Mrs. William Lucas gave a talk and demonstration on how to relax.

No meeting will be held in June because of the dinner on the meeting date. All planning to attend the dinner are asked to contact Mrs. Roy Wyncoop before June 8.

Build this Improved FIREPLACE that Circulates Heat

For Homes, Camps and Basement Rooms

THE HEATILATOR FIREPLACE circulates heat to every corner of the room and adjoining rooms. Saves the heat that ordinary fireplaces waste up the chimney. The scientifically designed heating chamber of the Heatilator Fireplace is concealed in the masonry where it draws cool air from floor level, heats it, and returns it to the room.

Heatilator installation eliminates the usual causes of smoking. It saves fuel bills during cool weather. Puts no limit on mantel design. Adds but little to the cost of the finished fireplace.

Now you Know!
The answers to everyday insurance problems* By HERMAN J. EATON

QUESTION: Will a Residence and Outside Theft policy reimburse the holder for the loss of small sums of cash? I refer to the household money which we, like so many other American families, keep in the sugar bowl, teapot, or some similar obvious hiding place.
ANSWER: Yes, small sums of money are covered in the policy to which you refer. As to the exact amounts to be specified, see a good insurance agent.
* If you'll address your own insurance questions to this office we'll try to give you the correct answers and there will be NO CHARGE or OBLIGATION OF ANY KIND.
